HONOR QUARTETTE OF NEWLY MARRIED COUPLES

An interesting social evening was spent recently in the township hall at Brougham when about fifty friends, and relatives gathered to honor four of our recently married couples.

Several weeks ago these friends formed an orchestra, or - more commonly called "charivari musicians" and dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Greig. After serenading them awhile and enjoying refreshments served by Mrs. Greig Sr., the party took the young couple and proceeded on to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell where the plough shares and dinner bell were again tuned up. Taking Bill and Eileen with them the crowd, gaining in numbers, at each stop proceeded to the darkened home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Pearce where more fiddling took place. Then taking 'Austin and his bride along, the gang, about sixty in number, visit-· where they played something that sounded like "Goodnight Ladies." (You can do a lot with your imagination.) The social evening in the hall was spent in playing euchre and crokinole. Presentations were made to the four couples and George Duncan acted as chairman, while Frank Carter, Lloyd Greig, Jack Mitchell and James Phillips presented each couple with a lovely wall mirror and a set of wall plaques. The grooms made fitting replies and thanked all for the gifts and saying how much
