York County Baby Beef Club Completes an Outstanding Year

One championship, one Reserve and seven animals in the first prize group was the record of the York County Baby Beef Club in the sensational King's Guineas Class at the Royal Winter Fair. The Guineas Class began by means of a fund established by the late King Edward 7th and is open to calf club members only. Annually it brings out a very large entry of the finest beef calves in the province. An audience of several thousand enthusiastic supporters filled the stands around the large ring of the Coliseum while the judging was in progress.

Bill Arkinstall of R.R.2, Newmarket had the champion steer in the Aberdeen Angus class. Margaret Arkinstall, Newmarket, Jean Brumwell, Gormley and David Evershed of Aurora also showed Angus calves and all placed in the first prize group.

In the Shorthorn class judge Chas. Yule of Calgary, Alta., finally placed the roan Shorthorn steer owned by Aileen Easton in the Reserve Championship spot. Other exhibitors of Shorthorns were Jocelyn Easton, Sylvia Easton and Isobel Hood of Gormley. The Grand Champion over all breeds this year went to a Hereford steer exhibited by Richard Hurd of Granton, Ont.

On the day following the show the calves are auctioned off to the highest bidder. The champion Angus steer owned by Bill Arkinstall brought 46c per pound while Aileen Easton's Reserve champion sold at 40c a pound.

Altona Grocery Store Business Marks Thirtieth Anniversary

On Dec. 5, 1921, Mr. O. M. Madill purchased the property on the northeast corner at Altona known as the "Look See" Brown Hotel. The property was badly in need of repair when taken over by Mr. Madill who hailed from Toronto.

The place had been operated previously by an Italian family and was only opened for a brief time each summer. The corner block was at one time, the Altona Hotel and was the last time operated as such by Mr. Harry Weisman. Following the introduction of local option in Pickering, the place was changed to a grocery.

Mr. Madill was born near Brougham, and Mrs. Madill was a native of Woodstock. The couple were industrious and completely renovated the former hotel site for grocery sales, installing shelving, and reroofing a portion of the building. The outbuildings on the premises were torn down and the land high with underbrush at that time, was cleared up. Mr. and Mrs. Madill entered the business at a time when prices were dropping rapidly, and Mr. Madill tells us that they were forced to sell the goods bought one week for cost to keep up with the slumping market.

Today, the place is well-stocked, the creek which traverses the property to the east has been beautified and a bridge added. Water pressure is also available in the building. Mr. and Mrs. Madill wish to extend their appreciation to their customers and friends for the trade they have enjoyed over the past thirty years on this their anniversary occasion.
