Toboggan accident

Boy suffers four broken ribs

By Marion Wells

LEMONVILLE Scott Reesor will have his foot confined to a cast for several weeks following a toboggan accident, Saturday. He suffered four broken ribs and was confined to hospital for a time. Mr. Claude Ernstzen is convalescing at home following knee surgery. He hopes to return to his desk next week after the stitches and cast are removed.

The community is pleased and relieved to learn that Wally Koster is improving following a heart attack. He is a patient in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.

Mrs. VanVliet is home again following surgery in York County Hospital, Newmarket. The family spent the time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nauta.

Mrs. Robt. Reesor was hospitalized this week for surgery. Bob's mother was here from Smith's Falls to help with the household duties.

Blain Bonnar had the misfortune to break a bone in his right hand while playing basketball.

Karen Rae, Christine Wells, Dianne Butterworth, Margaret Nauta and Jane Courage attended the York North 4-H Achievement Day in Newmarket, Saturday.

Mrs. Bruce Burton was the hostess at a lovely miscellaneous shower in honor of bride-elect, Mary-Lou Baker. Mary-Lou was married to Mr. Jim will take part in the service of worship at 10 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Merrils attended the 35th wedding anniversary in honor of his parents in Scarborough, Saturday.

Mrs. Bruce Burton was the hostess at a lovely miscellaneous shower in honor of bride-elect, Mary-Lou Baker. Mary-Lou was married to Mr. Jim

Rural beauty

Hockey dance

STOUFFVILLE - As part of their Minor Hockey Week celebrations the Stouffville Minor Hockey Association are sponsoring a Mid-Season Dance at Cedar Beach on Friday, Jan. 29, beginning at 8.30 p.m. Tickets at $4.00 per couple are available from members of the executive.

All hockey fans should make sure they have their tickets for the minor hockey games at the Arena next week. They are on sale from league players and make each purchaser eligible for various draws for door prizes.

Breakin

MILLIKEN Twenty-five dollars in cash and a radio were stolen from Cashway Lumber by thieves who smashed windows to gain access to the building then tried open a safe which contained nothing but papers.

The offices of Modern Excavating were also entered but nothing was taken. Detective Robert Burbidge of the Markham Department, York Regional Police is checking out suspects but no one has been charged.
