

Co-op delegates meet a 'Princess' at Ontario convention in Ottawa

A-ha, caught in the act. Just what many wives suspect when their husbands attend a convention. But Aubrey Carson (left) and John Porter have an excuse. They were delegates from Claremont attending the United Co-operatives of Ontario annual meeting in Ottawa. They chat with Ontario's Dairy Princess, Diannie Gunning of Tweed. Mr. Porter is the president of Claremont Co-op. Mr. Carson is a director. —Murray Mosher.

Buttonville residents

Bask in the sun

By Jean Leaf

BUTTONVILLE While the Buttonville community shivers in sub-zero temperatures, a few folks are more fortunate. George and Joan Hooper, for instance, are holidaying in Florida and Irene Craigie has been basking in Acapulco. Mike McQuay and Clarence Scott have returned from California where they visited with Mike's sister, Rhea. Mrs. Walter Craig has been released from York Central Hospital following surgery. She is convalescing at the Toronto home of her sister, Miss Lena Fraser.

Mrs. A.W. Miller was the guest speaker at Victoria Square Women's Institute. Friends were sorry to learn of the death of a former Buttonville resident, Mrs. Fergus Hoolihan, at York Central Hospital. Last week a party at the Royal York Hotel had a Buttonville link. Mrs. George Shallhorn of Toronto was honored by her family with a reception on the occasion of her 80th birthday. Mrs. Shallhorn, the former Mary Forsythe, is descended from the pioneer Hunter family who farmed in the Buttonville area near the corner of 16th Avenue on the 5th concession.

On Jan. 27 at 6:30 p.m. the Winter Pot Luck Picnic will be held at Brown's Corners Church, followed by the annual congregational meeting.

The first game of the winter euchre series was held at Buttonville Hall Friday evening with 24 tables of players in attendance. Winners were Miss Dell Stephenson, Miss Mary Rodick, Mrs. Betty Shaddock, Mrs. Nellie Klinck, Reg Allen, John Snider, Don Brodie, Robert Risebrough.

On Friday, I attended a very enjoyable performance put on at the Vivian Public School by the children of Mrs. Boynton's Grade 1 and 2 class. The first play was a musical version of 'The Three Billy
