Convention attendance drops

MARKHAM — The Markham Township Sunday School Association may be dissolved unless attendance improves, says President Leonard Burkholder. "The executive wasn't impressed with the attendance at this Sunday's meeting", he said, "a meeting held on a Sunday night should have packed the church". "Ten years ago, sessions were very popular. Now there appears to be a lack of interest in spiritual things among the general public". "Many circumstances conspire to keep people away from church", Mr. Burkholder said, "today, people seem to be devoting more and more of their spare time to some form of recreation — like skidoing". "But there is abundant evidence that some people are still hungry for the gospel. Christ's message is still vital and there is a great need to communicate it". "The service was held in the Christian Missionary Alliance Church, Unionville.
