

Claremont ski champion

By Rosemary Timms
CLAREMONT - A twelve year old Claremont boy won his first ski trophy, Sunday, placing first in the Giant Slalom event at Dagmar, David MacDonald, a Grade 7 student at Claremont Public School, won the junior competition with a combined time of 47.1 seconds.

have now exceeded $10,000. One gift of money came from as far distant as Vancouver.

A Winter Carnival is planned for the Claremont community in February with events to include a "trappers" ball, a hockey tournament and the crowning of a public school Carnival Queen. The program is a joint effort of all Claremont organizations including the Recreation Committee, the Lions Club and the Claremont P.T.A. Further information will be made available when activities are finalized.

Mrs. Earle Pilkey was called to Windsor, Sunday, when she learned her parents had been involved in a motor vehicle accident. Her father has been released from hospital but her mother remains in intensive care with a broken pelvis and other injuries. Earle managed his wife's school bus route, Monday morning.

Mr. Bert Dunn was admitted to Scarboro Centenary Hospital, Jan. 20. The community wishes him a speedy recovery.

The annual meeting of the Claremont Baptist Church will be held Thursday (tonight) at eight o'clock.

Remember the cribbage and euchre party, Saturday evening in the Claremont Community Hall. Admission is free to persons of all ages. The sponsor is the Claremont Community Recreation Association.

Heads Tribune ad staff

Robert McCausland has joined the staff of The Stouffville Tribune, serving in the position of advertising manager. Mr. McCausland replaces Noel Edey, now with the Ajax Advertiser, also a weekly in the Inland Company chain.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beck have sold their home and are moving to an apartment in Pickering. New owners are Mr. and Mrs. Donald McBeth, residents in the former Blair Evans' house.

The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. David Wollin of Toronto. They have purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Robinson, the former Jack Norton residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gall have taken up residence in the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Vanderligt. A complete recovery is wished for Mrs. Grant Taylor, now home from Oshawa General Hospital.

Mrs. Roy Timms was a delegate to the 1971 campaign conference, Ontario Division, Canadian Cancer Society, held on the weekend at the Westbury Hotel, Toronto.

The summary day, sponsored by the Claremont Women's Institute, will be held, Feb. 2 at 12.30 p.m., in Uxbridge. Persons requiring transportation are asked to contact Mrs. Jim Peddie.
