STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

To Israel
Mr. and Mrs. Fraser-Palmer of Rutherford House of Fashion, Main Street, were guests of honor at a house party, Friday evening, tendered by members of their staff. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Fraser-Palmer left by air to attend Fashion Week, a display sponsored by the Israeli Government and visited by dealers and buyers from all over the world.

Mrs. Alex Beattie, Victoria Street, is a patient in York County Hospital, Newmarket, following surgery last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tarr and Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Tompkinson, attended the Monument Builders Convention of North America in Quebec City last week.

Forty employed York Region's unemployed roll has been reduced by forty men through the Ontario Government's recently instituted works program, cutting dead elm trees. The project is not only providing persons with employment but removing an eyesore from the landscape.

Public speaking finalists

From Orchard Park, the entry was Laurie Houston; Summitview, Maureen Hudson and Stouffville High School, Fiona Waite. Alternate entries were Lise Struing, Orchard Park and Trevor Taylor, Summitview.

Friends will be pleased to learn that Ross Giles, local Chev-Olds dealer is able to be back at his place of business after being confined for several months through ill health.

Mrs. Winnifred Lockhead of Muskoka visited with Mrs. Elsie Day and Mrs. Dorothy Noon at Balsam, last week and attended the induction service for Rev. Ewart Orr in the Stouffville Baptist Church, Feb. 11.

Date changed
The next meeting of Whitchurch-Stouffville council will be held, Wednesday, Feb. 24 at 1:30 p.m. rather than the customary date of Feb. 23. Persons wishing to attend are asked to take note of the change.

Ski-doo stolen
The theft in broad daylight of a 1970 model Ski-doo snowmobile and trailer, the property of Leonard Powell, Main Street East, is reported by Police Chief Orland Keating. The complete unit was removed from the rear of the Kring Apartment. The loss is valued at $1,050.00.

Tribune - 1968?
The Tribune would appreciate hearing from anyone who might have copies of this newspaper published in 1968, specifically the last week in April or first week in May. The enquiry is being made in reference to an article on the late Alexander (Sandy) Stewart.

Margaret and Pauline Coughlan, Stouffville, R.R.2, flew to Sault Ste. Marie on the weekend to visit friends.

Honeymoon trip to visit bride's parents

UXBRIDGE - Baskets of white and yellow carnations formed a pretty setting in Uxbridge Sacred Heart Catholic Church for the marriage of Nicole Berard and James Lawrence McQuaker, Dec. 5, 1970.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rosaire Berard of St. Hyacinthe, Quebec and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McQuaker, Goodwood. Father A. Lee performed the 11 o'clock ceremony. Walter Taylor of Goodwood was the organist.

Owing to the illness of the bride's mother, her parents were unable to attend the wedding. Friends of the bride and groom Mr. and Mrs. George Carter of Claremont most graciously served as replacements.

Given in marriage by Mr. Carter, the bride was lovely in a full-length white satin gown, empire waistline with long sheer train. She carried white daisies with pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Joyce Farreir, friend of the bride, was an attendant in a full-length mauve gown with empire waistline. She wore yellow roses in her hair and carried yellow carnations and roses.

Also attending was Mary McQuaker, sister of the groom. She was in a full-length gown, yellow with pink roses in her hair. Her bouquet was pink carnations and red roses.

long yellow crepe dresses with daisies on the puffed sleeves. They wore yellow bows in their hair and carried pink carnations with green fern.

Scott Bain of Uxbridge was the groomsmen. The ushers were Glen Blacklock and Raymond Merrideth.

The reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carter, beautifully decorated with flowers for the special occasion. Mrs. Carter received in a two-piece white wool suit with a corsage of pink rosebuds. The groom's mother, Mrs.

McQuaker chose a blue bonded dress with a full length white and blue vest. A corsage of white rosebuds completed her ensemble. The wedding cake was made by the bride. The master of ceremonies was Bob Wilson.

The honeymoon was spent with the bride's parents in Montreal. For travelling the bride wore a yellow crepe jump suit. The happy couple are making their home in Stouffville.

Stouffville Lions Club will hold its annual Farmers' Night in the Masonic Hall, March 22.

Union Villa selects its 'Valentine queen'

Friday afternoon was indeed a happy occasion for Mrs. Verie Upshur, 72, of Union Villa, Unionville. She was crowned 'Valentine Queen', a popular choice with staff members and residents. Mrs. Upshur, a charming lady, came to Union Villa from Thornhill. Here, she receives a congratulatory kiss from Louise Vandellinder, one of the chief organizers of the event.
