

Ho-Tai Judo Club

Perform at college carnival

By Lee Wong BALLANTRAE. The Ho-Tai Judo Club was invited to take part in the 'Winter Carnival' at St. Andrew's College, Aurora, Feb. 6th. The occasion is a day of sports events staged to raise funds in aid of charitable organizations in the area. This year over $1,000.00 was raised on behalf of The Big Brothers Association of Aurora. Participants in the judo exhibition were some of the junior students of the Ho-Tai Club of the Whitechurch Centennial Centre, together with members of the judo class at St. Andrew's College. The audience was treated to a self-defence demonstration put on by Lynn Madill, Chris Harrison, Susan Madill, Chris Dinell, Lesley Harrison, Brian Wong, Denise Topper, Ascot Chang, Cathy Sheffield and Gary Edwards.

Ballantrae Public School held its annual public speaking contest this week, with students from Grades 5 and 6 competing. The winner was Grade 5 student Gregory Muir. Cathy Lloyd, Grade 6 was second, and Don Jollymore, Grade 5, was third. Greg was an entry in the Area 2 finals at the Senior School in Aurora Feb.

17. The contest judges were Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Stem and Mrs. Owen. Kindergarten registration was held at Ballantrae with 35 children enrolled. It is expected that enrollment will reach a total of 50 by September.

The 1st Ballantrae Cub pack announced the following awards for February 10. Cub of the Month and Cub of the Night - David Rea; Six of the Night - green six led by Second David Ratcliffe. Green Stars were awarded to David Rea and Bill White. Steven Swartman was invested as a new Cub.

Winners at the 'Over 60' Euchre held Feb. 9 were: Ladies - Mrs. Thelma Northcott, 91; Mrs. Dot McGuckin, 91; Mrs. Elva Kidd, 61.

Men: Morton Symes, 93; James Gibson, 83; Norm Smalley, 57.

The Children's Saturday Club has had to cancel its movies, and the Judo Club its junior classes, on the past three Saturdays, because of bad weather and poor road conditions. Both these programmes hope to resume their regular schedules this week.

Art display

Sculptured 'Ookpik' wins carnival award

This is an 'Ookpik' or an Eskimo version of a snowy white owl. It was sculptured out of ice and snow by the Grade 13 students of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School as part of Friday's Winter Carnival event. The size of the model can be compared with student Diane Mintz, seated on its perch.

Panel discussion on discipline

By Ruth Hutchings GREEN ROVER. 'Discipline' will be the subject of a panel discussion at a meeting of the Green River Home and School Association, Feb. 22 at 8 p.m. Panelists will include Sandra Salverson, Al Ward, Don Wannacott and principal Mr. Mills. All parents in the community are urged to attend.

A scarf - fifty feet long

By Debbie King STOUFFVILLE. Stouffville Dist. Secondary School held its first 'Snow Carnival' Friday and students showed a real artistic flair with some excellent pieces of sculpture. In the junior division, 7D placed 1st with their model walrus. The second winner was a scene depicting 'Snoopy' and an igloo. The Grade 13 students sculptured an Ookpik while the Grade 12 girls Physical Education class carved out a penguin. Honorable mention goes to the boys who completed the 'replica' of a Volkswagen.

The longest scarf was owned by Grade 12 student, Weldon Jones. It measured 50 feet and was made from a blanket, cut into strips and sewn together. In an upcoming assembly, Weldon will be presented with a ball of wool so he can begin work on a matching pair of mittens.

Danny Brazier, Grade 7, won the snow-shoe race.

In junior girl's basketball, Stouffville downed Brock, 38-12.
