Rev. Chris Dugan

Resignation received - with regret

By Jean Leaf
BUTTONVILLE - Rev. Chris Dugan, the pastor of Brown's Corners United Church and a gentleman who has endeared himself with all members of the congregation, is leaving the charge. His resignation was contained in an announcement from the Official Board and released at the annual congregational meeting, Feb. 14. It was the one sad note in an encouraging report. In spite of a fervent plea by members that Rev. Dugan reconsider his decision, the request was finally adopted, with regret. Givings for the year exceeded $20,000 for the 90-family congregation with the M. & S. almost 20 percent of this amount. Officers are - N.R. Reid, clerk of session; W.A. Craig, treasurer; H.L. Coleman, secretary. Members of session are - N.R. Reid, H.J. Brown, B.

Armstrong, H.L. Coleman, Albert Copp, W.A. Craig, J. Donaldson, R. Donaldson, A.D. Hewitt, W. Middleton, W.W. Miller, D. Reesor, Elgin Sherman, Harold Steffler, Garnet Stewart and Charles Turner. The stewards are - W. Lammers, Richard Carr, Jim Grant, Mrs. Harvey Brown, Mrs.

Verne Griffin, Mrs. J. Buchanan, Wm. Best, Eric Hincks, Wm. Palmer, Miss I Hood, Gordon Brown and Robt. Hood. Mrs. Don Reesor is the organist and Mrs. Marguerite Jones, the choir leader.

A complete recovery is wished for Rev. Wm. Butt, a patient in Scarborough General Hospital.

Mayor Tony Roman An ace up his sleeve

Mrs. Wm. Sandle
