BILL JACKSON Mortgage Manager

FARM MORTGAGES

Yes we now have first mortgage financing available for up to 70% of the appraised value of the farm land and buildings, providing the following conditions are met.,

(1) The home and improvements represent at least 40% of the total value

(2) The owner or applicant has an income from other than farming sufficient to support the mortgage.

(3) The farm lands are not being held for the purpose of speculation and the owner applicant is residing on the property.

We have recently placed the following mortgages on farm properties

Modernized frame farm home and buildings on 60 acres sold for $35,000 -we arranged a $25,000 first mortgage at 10%

Older brick farm home on 40 acres, sold for $57,000 - we arranged a $28,500. first mortgage at 10%.

As well as mortgage money wouldn't it be helpful to get sound advice? Our clients think it is. Why not discuss your requirements with us by phone at 294-1372 or call at our Markham Offices at 7 & 48 high-

Reg Taylor

If you can manage to sell your house yourself and SAVE the agent's fee, who can argue that that is a smart move? The catch is in the "saving" part. It is a very rare seller indeed who sells his own house without ending up giving all or part of the Realtor's fee to the buyer through price concessions or incorrect valuation. Furthermore, buyers usually expect it. In dealing direct with principals, they are of course aware that the seller is not paying a Realton's fee and it seems only fair that they benefit from this "saving." Most important of all, perhaps, is the fact that since time began every important negotiation requires an intermediary - a "buffer" who can give and take on the price without offending either party. Otherwise, a rejected offer may mean hurt feelings and the end of negotiations. A competent Realtor will guide you through a correct appraisal that will realize the full market value of the property for you, past legal pitfalls that could kill the sile and save you work and worry and
