

Storm-stayed

By Betty Pegg
GREENWOOD - An evening party held at the home of Susan Shewan, Saturday, became an all-night affair when the "weatherman" attended as an uninvited guest. Friends couldn't return home because of the storm that blanketed the area with wet snow.

The weather also affected church attendance, Sunday. Twelve persons braved the elements. Communion service has been postponed to March 14.

The church stewards met March 3 with a good attendance. The chairman for 1971 is Doug Morden; secretary, Don Goodwood and secretary, Alfred Pegg. The annual Oyster Supper is planned for April 4. Mrs. Hitchcock and daughter Susan of Cape Elizabeth, flew home to be with her mother, Mrs. Frew and to see her father, a patient in Oshawa Hospital.

Mrs. Ernie Trimble has been on the sick list during the past week.

Mrs. Garnet Courtice and Mrs. Gould of Pickering, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pascoe recently.

Mrs. H. Crawford entertained her niece, Mrs. Michael Reed of Maryland and her sister, Mrs. H.W. Padwick of Regina on the weekend.

Athletics - always a 'fun thing'

For talented 12 year old Jennifer Smith, sports will always be a 'fun thing'. She excels in almost every phase of athletics, including skating. She's an entry, Saturday, in the Inter-Club competitions at Markham.

STOUFFVILLE - Although 12 year old Jennifer Smith is an advanced skater, an excellent swimmer and a track and field star, she doesn't want to become a professional athlete. Her ambition is to become a physician like her father, Dr. Donald Smith.

"I want to help people - like my dad", says the pretty grade seven student at Stouffville District Secondary School. "And if I don't go in for medicine, then I want to be a nursery school teacher".

Even though she has won many awards for high jumping and did extremely well at the tri-state figure skating competitions held recently in Port Huron, Michigan, sports to Jennifer will always be just a 'fun thing'.

"When you train professionally, it becomes work", she said. "I don't mind being under pressure but I want to keep sports recreational. If I had to practice for hours and hours, it wouldn't seem like fun any more".

Jennifer's mother, Mrs. Beth Smith agrees. "There is enough competition in school", she says. "We want Jennifer to be a well-rounded personality with interests in many things besides athletics."

But Jennifer enjoys competition and next week she will be matched with some of the best skaters from the area at inter-club competitions, March 13.

following a pleasant holiday in the sunny South.
