

Burglars were busy

By Jean Leaf BUTTONVILLE
Burglars were busy on the weekend. A small amount of merchandise was removed from the home of J. Domanski, Hughson Drive. At the Masi residence on Don Mills Road, where entry was made several weeks ago, a second attempt was made, Saturday without success.

Quilters are making the most of winter. Last week at the home of Mrs. Wm. Champion members of the Markham Women's Liberal Association completed a quilt which will be raffled in the near future to provide funds for elections expected before the end of 1972. This week, Brown's Corners United Church Women are making a quilt at the home of Mrs. John Donaldson. Friends were sorry to learn that Mrs. C.J. Russell is in Branson Hospital after suffering a slight stroke.

Y.C.H.A. members (Butonville Branch) will meet Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Chris Adair, 9 Windridge Avenue, Markham. Coffee at 10 a.m.

On Sunday, following the regular church service, members at Brown's Corners Church appointed a pastoral relations committee to secure a minister to succeed Rev. Chris Dugan. Rev. Dugan has announced his intention to leave in June. Those named are Mr. Arthur Hewitt, Mrs. Jean Buchanan, Mr. Don Reesor, Mr. Harold Steffler and Mrs. Mary Lou Hood. On Sunday Rev. J. Bradley Cruyton took the service. Mrs. Jim Wolfe was organist. On Wednesday evening of next week, W.I. members will see pictures of a Pacific tour presented by Don Brodie. The meeting will be held at Butonville Hall.

Brown's Corners United Church Women held their regular meeting at Union Villa, when residents were their guests. The devotional service was held in the beautiful chapel. Mrs. Craig presided, Mrs. Don Reesor played the organ and accompanied Mrs. Margaret Murphy and Mrs. Patricia Ross (the Patterson sisters) in two duets. Mrs. John Buchanan conducted a meaningful devotional. Afterward the meeting moved to the attractive dining room where Mrs. Wm. Champion read several poems from old readers and Mrs. S.J. English recited poems by Robert Burns. Mrs. English also accompanied Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson in two solos, and played for a singsong of old favorites. Convenors of the meeting were Mrs. Alf Miller and Mrs. Bill Miller.

At the World Day of Prayer service held at Headford United Church, Friday afternoon, Mrs. W.W. Miller was key woman from Brown's Corners Church. She and Mrs. Harold Steffler assisted with the service and Mrs. Marguerite Jones was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Stewart Rumble.

Little guys were 'big guns' in O.M.H.A. playoff

Stouffville's Novice entry in the O.M.H.A. playoffs bowed out of further competition, March 4, losing 7-2 to West Rouge. The visitor's Tim Pratt (left) and Doug Willoughby each scored twice for the winners. Harry Bonk (centre) counted one for Stouffville.

Expense paid trip to Florida

STOUFFVILLE - With a winter like this, where else would you rather be but in Florida.

That's just where Ken Shaw, Stouffville, R.R.3 is entitled to travel, all expenses paid, courtesy the 'Clipper' Hockey Club.

Ken was the big winner, Saturday, in the team's Elimination Draw, held at the Legion Hall. Only 500 tickets were sold a $5 apiece.

Consolation prizes went to Graydon Card, Stouffville ($50); Thos. Davis, Toronto ($25) and $10 each to Wm. P.

Davis, Toronto; Sam Spencer, Ashburn, R.R.1; Betty Rodgers, Whitby; Merlin Harman, Goodwood; Earl Paisley, Stouffville and Larry Taylor, Stouffville, R.R.3.

Children's show
