

Students earn way to Conservation School

Students of St. Mark's Separate School are working their way to Conservation School at Claremont this spring. Their goal is to raise sufficient money to reduce the per pupil registration fee. Serving as treasurer is staff teacher Ed McGuigan. He accepts proceeds from students Steven Renaud and Michael Rigby. —Jas. Thomas.

Eight-day tour of Rome

By Evelyn Milsted GORMLEY Miss Margaret Smith has returned from an enjoyable 8-day visit in Rome. While there, she viewed many places of historical interest including the Vatican, the Opera and Florence. En route home, she had a 1 1/2 hour stop-over in Ireland, allowing her time to see some of the sights there.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roy K. Smith, married 25 years, April 6.

presto! LIKE MAGIC your 'OLD PLACE' will LOOK LIKE NEW. So fast, with so little muss and fuss, you'll think you're dreaming.

Just tell us to paint anything you like inside and out, then stand back... In a few minutes we will cover hundreds of feet of surface, in any colour you choose, with gleaming fresh paint in the highest quality of finish. Our secret is the latest method of painting. It's called DRI-SPRAY. Sure, it takes an expert... sure the equipment cost us a lot... but because we can work so much faster it costs you less, and we need all the work you can give us, to keep busy.
