

Weatherman's game keeps everyone guessing

What will it be tomorrow - sunshine, rain or snow? The way the weatherman's been behaving this month, it could be a combination of all three. Scenes such as this, Saturday morning, are becoming common. This car was parked on O'Brien Avenue in Stouffville. And for the benefit of Tribune readers still in Florida, that's real snow on the windshield.

Dr. Patricia M. Asling

wishes to announce that within the near future she will be leaving her practice in general dentistry. As she has already begun her new job as the Associate Dental Director for the Oshawa Ontario County Health Unit, attendance at her office will be limited until such time as a new dentist takes over. Your indulgence in this matter is requested.

Dr. Asling wishes to thank all those people who have made the practice of dentistry so enjoyable over the past eight years and hopes that you will continue to patronize her successor.
