

A last look

Harry Smith, a Gormley district native and congregational member of Mt. Pisgah United Church for 75 years, attended the sale of the property Saturday. Mr. Smith, treasurer of the Trustee Board, is shown here at the chapel entrance. —Jas. Thomas.

Linda Eastwood

Wins scholarship

By Betty Pegg
GREENWOOD — Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Brown and Miss May Brown attended the graduation exercises at Civic Auditorium, May 28 where their granddaughter, Miss Linda Eastwood received her diploma from Durham College. In addition, Linda was awarded a $100 scholarship for the highest standing as a medical secretary in the class. Linda resided in Greenwood for a number of years and has many friends in the community. She now lives with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Hewston, Centre Street, Whitby.

Rev. T.H. Fleetham assisted at the Sunrise Service in the Claremont Conservation Area, Sunday.
Unit 2 of the U.C.W. will meet June 9 at the home of Mrs. Les Wilson.
Mr. and Mrs. D. Duechman of Oshawa visited with Mrs. I. McLean, Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Hallam of Nanticoke, enjoyed dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Morden and family, Sunday.

Small attendance
Although the C.B.C.'s Country Time Show enjoys a high T.V. rating in Canada, it attracted only about 150 persons to the Stouffville Arena, May 25. A combination of inadequate local publicity plus a $3.00 admission (adult) at the door has been blamed for the small audience.

Public meeting
A public meeting to discuss plans for Whitechurch-Stouffville's July 1 Sports Day, will be held Thursday evening, June 3 (tonight) at 8 p.m. in the committee room of the Stouffville firehall. All interested persons are invited to attend.
