

House-warming party

By Vera Moyer
DICKSON'S HILL Friends gathered recently at the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jarvis, formerly from this area. Following a conducted tour and visit, Mr. Eldred King presented Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis with a gift and best wishes from all who gathered for the housewarming event.

On behalf of the Dickson's Hill Church, W.M.S. and Sunday School an invitation is extended to friends for a time of fellowship at Willow Springs Camp, Lemonville, June 29, at 6 p.m.

This time of year brings about many happy occasions - such as weddings, showers and even a housewarming. However, there are a few events that come which bring mingled emotions. The one recent event was the farewell presentation made to Mrs. Charles Hoover, June 16. Mrs. Herb Wideman graciously opened her lovely home and a host of friends and relatives gathered to pass on best wishes to Mrs. Hoover as she leaves to reside with her daughter Doris in Toronto. A beautiful lamp was presented along with a gift of money toward books.

However, we do trust Mrs. Hoover and Doris will visit our area often in the future. On behalf of the community our best wishes attend her as she leaves.

Saturday evening, a miscellaneous shower was held at Glen Brook in honor of Mr. John Hoover and Miss Donna Otter to be married July 17.

Dickson's Hill friends of Miss Katherine Burkholder are invited to join members of her church at a miscellaneous shower, Saturday, June 26, at 8 p.m. in Glen Brook hall. Katherine and Mr. Ray Bauman from St. Jacobs will be married July 24.

Community Bible School staff - Dickson's Hill

Buttonville School closes end of June

By Jean Leaf
BUTTONVILLE Buttonville School (former S.S. No. 5) will close its doors without fanfare, June 30, after serving the community more than 100 years. For many, it will be a sad day. Beginning in September, pupils will attend at Parkview in Unionville or at Dickson's Hill. Principal Howard Atkinson will transfer to the 15-room Mt. Albert School; Mrs. Joy Crawford will be at James Robinson School, Markham; Mrs. Ethel Boyd to No. 10 School, Unionville and Helen Kingsley to Richmond Hill. Congratulations to Mrs. Arthur Coombs, Toronto who celebrated her 100th birthday in the former Louise Ness, a sister of Mrs. Sadie Brooke, a resident in this area for many years. In their early years, the sisters went to school at Headford and Mrs. Coombs began her married life at Richmond Hill in the house on Vaughan Road which was later known as the Ada MacKenzie home. On June 16, several local people attended the York North Liberal Association (Federal) annual meeting and dinner at the Summit View Restaurant. Barney Danson was the guest speaker. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reesor, Arthur Hewitt, Mrs. Walter Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Empringham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reesor, Mrs. Fred Leaf, President Donald Stephenson paid tribute to Mrs. George Kelly, president of the Markham Women's Liberal Association and active in Liberal affairs. Mrs. Kelly is recuperating at Fenlon Falls following a heart attack. Congratulations to pupils of Mrs. S. J. English who have passed Royal Conservatory exams

Sharon Buchanan and Melanie Watt, grade 5 and Nancy Armstrong grade 5. Mrs. Marguerite Jones also had two honor students, Bruce Waterford and Gayle Jones who tried grade 3 and grade 5 exams respectively. Mr. and Mrs. Al Miller and members of the immediate family were wedding guests Friday when their son was married to Miss Janet Springgay in a quiet ceremony at Dundalk United Church. On Sunday, Mr. Al Miller was the star of the Father's Day party at the Miller home with 26 members of the family present. Included were: Dr. and Mrs. Donald Otis, Rebecca and Matthew Pueblo, Colorado; Mrs. Jim Miller and their eight sons and one daughter; Markham; and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mingay and their family of five, also of Markham.

Richmond Hill couple Win Bermuda holiday

By Mrs. Wm. Sandle
VIC SQUARE - An expense-paid trip to Bermuda. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burns, Bluegrass Blvd., Richmond Hill received the good news Saturday evening, the result of a lucky draw at the Community Day, June 19. The ticket was selected by Mrs. David Beadle. The draw committee chairman was Bill Corcoran. In a second draw on a chocolate cake, the winner also came from Richmond Hill. Miss Elizabeth Flood took home the prize. All events attracted much attention. Euchre winners were Mrs. Almstead, Mrs. Fred Gibson, Verna Jones, Mr. Fred Gibson, Jim Smith and Bert Nichols. The lucky draw was won by Joe Stephenson.

The playground starts July 5, 9:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. and will be held every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday mornings during July and August in the Victoria Square Park. During Sunday School, the Intermediate girls presented the superintendent, Mrs. Martin Jenkinson with a bouquet of peonies, a card and two decorated cakes, one with 'Thank You' and the other in the shape of a church. The presentation was in appreciation for all she has done for the children during the year. Birthday greetings to Laurie Ashton, 12 years, June 23; Mrs. Clarence Steckley, June 24; Donna Boyd, June 26. Wedding anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. George Joyce, married 45

Mrs. Michael McQueen spent Saturday with friends in Buffalo. Mrs. Clarence Steckley visited with Mrs. Helen Watt and family, Scarborough.
