

Wed in Barrie — now reside in Stouffville

Mr. and Mrs. David Earl Hoover, following their marriage May 8, 1971, in Hi-Way Pentecostal Church, Barrie, Ont. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoover, O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville.

BARRIE - A pretty wedding was held in Hi-Way Pentecostal Church, Barrie, May 8, 1971 when David Earl Hoover, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoover, 59 O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville took as his bride, Katherine Anne Griffin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffin, Shanty Bay, Ontario. Two large bouquets of spring flowers formed a lovely setting for the ceremony performed at 3 o'clock by Rev. George Tunks.

Mrs. Ruth Tunks of Barrie was the organist and accompanied the soloist Joyce Baker also of Barrie.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a nylon crepe white floor length gown with high waist, high collar, long sleeves and a train accented with wide chintilly lace and interlaced with pink ribbon. She carried a nosegay of pink roses with daisies and white streamers.

Anne Schepers of Phelpston was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Carol Lyons, Toronto and Cindy Jonkman of Barrie. Cindy Griffin of Shanty Bay was flower girl for her sister.

Attendants were attractive in floorlength pink lace gowns with high waist, low neckline and trimmed with white daisies. They wore black velvet cameo chokers and carried small pink carnations and daisies with pink streamers.

Bruce Gilbert of R.R.2, Markham was the groomsmen. The ushers were Harold Hoover, Stouffville and Alan Griffin, Shanty Bay. They together with the groom and the fathers wore tuxedos.

The reception took place in the Minesing Community Hall. The bride's mother received in a floor length medium blue gown of polyester satin with chiffon sleeves and beading on the cuffs and neckline. A white fox stole completed her attire. The groom's mother assisted also in a floor length rose dress and coat. Her ensemble was accented with beading and chintilly lace around the neckline and down the front.

For travelling to Florida, the bride wore a three-piece crimplene pant suit with navy flared pants and checked coat and dress.

The happy couple are residing in Stouffville.
