

The Story of Two Brides

How's this for luxury eh Bonnie? John Roe shows Bonnie & David how they could go on a honeymoon in style and comfort in a beautiful new Ford of their choice. They were especially surprised at the extra luggage room and low cost of all the models at JOHN ROE FORD MERCURY, MAIN ST. W., STOUFFVILLE.

All the excitement of a wedding reception centres around the young bride and groom cutting their pretty wedding cake. Bonnie and David are examining one of STOUFFVILLE BAKERY'S traditional cakes designed and baked right at their MAIN ST. W., STOUFFVILLE location.

Mrs. Cynthia Fraser-Palmer shows Bonnie one of RUTHERFORD'S summer dresses that both David and Bonnie particularly liked. They were impressed to learn that all the smart new fashions a bride could want are available right here in STOUFFVILLE at RUTHERFORD HOUSE OF FASHION, 46 MAIN ST. WEST.

Graydon Card shows Bonnie "a girl's best friend", - an Inglis dishwasher. Bonnie and David also liked the Avocado Refrigerator and Range at CARD'S HARDWARE, MAIN ST. W., STOUFFVILLE that would make a splendid wedding gift for any prospective bride and groom.

Ron Myers demonstrates the convenient, simple controls of this Electrohome Cavendish Colour TV in Autumn Oak finish. Bonnie and David were also fascinated by the wide choice of stereos, tape-recorders and portable radios at SOUND OF MUSIC, 48 MAIN ST. W., STOUFFVILLE.
