MELVILLE - A pretty wedding was performed in Melville United Church, June 19, 1971 when Susan Jane Sherwood became the bride of Bruce Walker Flynn. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Sherwood, Dickson's Hill and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Flynn, Mount Dennis, Toronto.

The Rev. George Davison of Melville United Church performed the 7 o'clock ceremony assisted by Father R.E. Thorne, rector of Stafford Anglican Parish, Pembroke and uncle of the bride.

Gold and white candelabra together with bouquets of pink and white peonies and orange blossoms decorated the church. Betty Gayman of Unionville R.R. 2 was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in an off white silk poie de soie full-length gown with cathedral train and trimmed with Belgium lace. She wore a headpiece of seed pearls and carried a corsage of pink rose buds. Among the guests present was the bride's grandmother from Trenton.

For travelling to Whitefish Falls and points west, the bride chose a beige pant suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. The happy couple are residing in Mount Dennis.

Stouffville Trade Fair, Sept. 9-10-11.
