Baseball boys on 'hot streak'

STOUFFVILLE The fire in the Stouffville hardball team has been roaring strong as they have blazed a seven-game win streak.

On Aug. 8, Stouffville visited Manilla and came home with a 5-1 win. Aug. 11, they burned the same team in Stouffville, 24-4. The I.G.A. team won that game in the first inning, chalking up eight runs. Ted Suzuki was responsible for the first three, belting a grand slam homer with 2 men on. Roger Todd also cracked a grand slammer over the centre-field fence. Todd led in the runs-batted-in-department with four. The mound manager for Stouffville was Greg Turner.

On Sunday, Stouffville had to work a little harder for their conquest over Sunderland. In the ninth, Sunderland had a seven-run rally to force extra-innings with an 11-11 tie. Neither team could get a hit in the tenth inning, but Stouffville racked up five unanswered tallies in the eleventh for a 16-11 win. Murray Holden stayed on the mound for Stouffville until the middle of the ninth, when he was relieved by Dave Coutts.

Squirt 'B' champs

STOUFFVILLE Stouffville's 'B' team in Squirt House League competition, captured the championship, Monday, beating Pine Orchard 16-13.

The club coach is Murray Redshaw. They swept the series in two straight after knocking off Preston Lake in an earlier round.

Barry Sanders and Keith McGuckin shared the mound chores with Bill Housser back of the plate.

Outfielder Chris O'Connor squelched a threatened Pine Orchard rally in the final inning, catching a fly ball and doubling off the runner with a fine throw to Kevin McGuckin at first.

Start playoffs Sunday

STOUFFVILLE - It's baseball playoff time in Stouffville, Sunday, with Cambray the visitors at 2 p.m.

The I.G.A. boys finished the regular schedule in third place. Sunderland was first; Cambray, second; and Manilla fourth.

The series' second and third games are at Cambray, Aug. 28 and Sept. 4.

Buy a bar

STOUFFVILLE Next week, members of the Stouffville Peewee fastball team will be out in town, selling chocolate bars, door-to-door.

The plan is to raise $300, so they may participate in a 3-day tournament in Ottawa, Sept. 4-6.

The management and players ask your co-operation.

Better late - -

STOUFFVILLE - It seems the Stouffville Peewees work well under pressure. They were trailing 11-6 behind Oak Ridges, on Monday, but the deficit didn't faze them. They rallied for six runs in the 9th to squeeze out a 12-11 win. It was the opening game in the second round of O.A.S.A. playoffs.

A triple by Dave Lang placed Stouffville one point down with two men out. Ken Smith tapped in the eleventh and tying run, and a well executed bunt by Patty O'Callaghan, in the winning marker.

Patty O'Callaghan started and finished on the mound for Stouffville, with Howie Jones relieving for a short stint.

Oak Ridges got off to an early start with seven runs in the first two innings. They never looked back, until the last inning upset.

Lacrosse playoffs

STOUFFVILLE 'Fast and furious' will no doubt describe the action in the Stouffville Arena next Monday night as the 'Shamrock' Lacrosse team host their first playoff game. They will face either Ajax or Orangeville at 8:30 p.m.

The 'Shamrocks' got a bye in the first series of eliminations, since they are a newly formed club this year.

Tennis tourney

STOUFFVILLE - Last weekend, the senior players of the Stouffville Tennis Club held a round-robin competition with 14 members participating.

Successful season

STOUFFVILLE - A successful pre-teen bowling schedule was concluded, Saturday, at the Stouffville Centre.

Twenty-eight boys and girls participated in competition and instruction.

Top three boys were Byron Tuck, John Christie and Larry Graves, followed by Garry Carr, Jeff Williams, Mark Redquest, Andre Ertl, Stewart Campbell, Garry Mann, Randy Zvier, Paul Clark, Brian Haining, Garry Taylor, Gary Melhuish, Mike Redquest and Tim Dart.

Top three girls were Nancy Dart, Sheila Shadlock and Pat Tuck, followed by Sandy Melhuish, Andrea Tuck, Carol Campbell, Kelly Morris, Donna Summerfeldt, Susan Thomas, Gayle Fellows, Heather Merrilles and Debbie Foley.

Bantam team

MARKHAM - The final 11-10 score only begins to show how close the O.A.S.A. Bantam game was between Markham and Stouffville, Thursday.

It was a down to the wire game with Stouffville trailing 9-8 going into the eighth. Miraculously, they scored a homerun on a bunt with one man on base, to ease them into a 10-9 lead. Then Markham came back in the bottom of that inning to crack out a homerun with one man on giving them an 11-10 advantage.

Stouffville was unable to recoup their losses and finished their stay in the O.A.S.A. playoffs.

Bowlers lose to

Owen Sound

STOUFFVILLE - A rink of four, including Harry Brammer (skip), Elgin Wagg, Dawson Hare and Robt. Lewis, lost out to Owen Sound in the finals of the 4th event, Provincial Lawn Bowling competition in Toronto, Aug. 11.

It looks easy - but it's not Al's Tack Shop property on the Vandorf Road, west of Hwy. 48, was the location for an all-western horse show, Sunday. One of the participants in the Barrel Race was 13 year old Tanis Johnston, Stouffville, R.R.4. —Jas. Thomas.

Ninth inning rally

Peewee team beats Markham

MARKHAM - This was it. Stouffville was down 4-3 against Markham as they took their last turn at bat. The Peewees chance to continue in the O.A.S.A. playoffs depended on the success of the next three boys. The fans were on the edge of their seats. It had been a close game, tension mounting throughout.

Stouffville had taken an early 2-0 lead but lost that in the fourth and now they faced the possible end of their playoff trail.

Top of the batting order - Ken Smith. He bunts and it's good enough to carry him to first. Next batter is Patty O'Callaghan. Crack! Ken is on his way home to tie the game and Patty stops at third. Stouffville pitcher Howie Jones comes to the plate. He already has two home runs, one on an error. Howie connected, but it popped up and landed in the third baseman's glove. One out. Stouffville has at least earned an extra-inning, if necessary, but that gives Markham a chance to earn more runs as well.

Can they get another hit? Doug Feasby quickly answered that with a solid single to bring in Patty O'Callaghan, adding the winning run. Final score - 5-4, for a very ecstatic Stouffville crew.

Howie Jones allowed five hits. The Stouffville Trade Fair, Sept. 9-10-11.

John Annis

Mound master

STOUFFVILLE Thornhill batters could not get much farther than home plate as they came up against some tremendous twirling by Pickering's John Annis, pitching for the Stouffville Jr.s., in O.A.S.A. action. In fact John struck out seven batters in the first two innings. This was accomplished when one man he whiffed managed to get on base as the catcher missed the final throw, forcing John to face an extra man. In the seven innings he hurled, Annis fanned 17 batters and allowed only four hits. Keith Lewis took over at that point and gave up two more hits and struck out two batters.

The Juniors totalled nine runs, bettering Thornhill's five.

Bob Leger and Lorne Mitchell each pushed three runners cross the plate. Grant Norton, Larry Gilroy and Kerr Ferguson looked after the others.

If Stouffville takes this round they can continue to the zone finals against either Port Perry or Mount Albert.

Lose two straight

GREENWOOD - The Stouffville Intermediates and Greenwood were pitted together in the first round of O.A.S.A. Intermediate 'C' playoffs. Greenwood took the opener in Stouffville last week 7-2, and Aug. 11 finished the series with a score of 7-0.

Tom Davis hurled the Greenwood shut-out. Sending them down fast and with good control for the entire game, Davis paved the way for Greenwood's entry into the second round against Bay Ridges. Davis was also essential on the scoreboard, singling in Bill Hansen twice. Hansen also homered and Bob Moffat nailed a three-bagger with the bases loaded.

Fastball League

STOUFFVILLE - In fastball action last week, Whitby shut-out Pickering, 12-0; Ballantrae stopped Greenwood, 12-5; Victoria Square upset the Stouffville Jr.s., 13-12; Stouffville swamped Greenwood 10-3; Markham stumped Pickering, 6-0; and Claremont edged out Ballantrae, 4-3.
