 Mrs. E. Roy Schneider and girls of Bloomingdale recently spent a few days with her mother Mrs. Fred Pugh.

Honeymoon in Ottawa and the north

CEDAR GROVE—Zion United Church, Cedar Grove was the scene of a lovely wedding July 17, when Janet Bielby, Pickering, became the bride of Ronald Dean, Markham. Rev. Eric Sisel, of Huntsville, officiated.

The bride's attendants were her sisters: Laura, Maid of Honor, and Irene and Alice as bridesmaids. They were dressed in dotted Swiss gowns of mauve.

The bride wore a floor-length gown and train of white polyester crepe with lace trim and a shoulder-length veil. She carried a single mauve orchid and white stephanotis.

Gerald Dean, brother of the groom was best man. Ushers were Robert Dean and Douglas Taylor.

For her travelling outfit, the new Mrs. Dean wore a mauve hot-pant suit with white daisy trim and accessories. The young couple spent their honeymoon in Ottawa and Northern Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Dean, married July 17, in Zion United Church, Cedar Grove.

Mrs. Thomas Little

Scarborough lady enjoyed long life

SCARBORO—Mrs. Thomas Little, one of Scarborough's renowned senior citizens, passed away Aug. 3, at the Altamont Nursing Home. She was 94.

She was born Jean Glendinning, granddaughter of Archibald

Glendinning, who came to Canada from Scotland in 1796, a nephew of Mary (Glendinning) Thompson, the mother of Scarborough. Archibald Glendinning's homestead was a 200 acre farm which extended along the Kennedy Road from Ellesmere Road to Lawrence Avenue.

The fieldstone house that he built was a landmark in Scarborough until 1970.

Walter Glendinning inherited the north half of the family farm. He married Isabella Robertson, and they raised a family of five daughters and one son: Mary (Mrs. George Young), Steena (Mrs. Archibald Bell), Lissa and Archibald (deceased) and Jean (Mrs. Little). Miss Ethel Glendinning, a retired missionary still lives in Agincourt.

In 1901, Jean Glendinning married Thomas Little; they farmed at Elm Rouge until Mr. Little's death in 1946. The farm was sold and Mrs. Little spent the remaining years of her life with her daughters, Florence (Mrs. J.C. Malcolmson) and Helen (Mrs. F.C. Johnston).

Mrs. Little will be remembered by her many friends as a fine Christian woman. She was a member of the Melville Presbyterian Church in West Hill until 1925 when the family became members of the new United Church. Until she left the farm she was a member of St.

Andrew's United Church in Markham; and at the same time, she was an active member of the W.M.S. at Zion Church. When she moved to Toronto, she became a Charter member of Armour Heights United Church.

Her funeral was conducted by the Rev. Rowan Binning with interment at Melville Cemetery in West Hill.

Mrs. Little leaves a family of four: Florence and Helen in Toronto, Archibald, and Harris in Waubesa, Wis. She also leaves eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Community barbecue for Atha residents

By Bill McGee
ATHA—The residents of Atha enjoyed their 5th annual Beef Barbecue at the Atha Community Centre on Saturday, August 14. One hundred and sixty people attended sitting down to a meal of fresh rolls and butter, succulent barbecued beef and gravy, foil wrapped baked potatoes with sour cream, baked beans, cabbage salad and coffee with soft drinks and watermelons for the youngsters. The final treat was a selection of home-made pies baked and donated by the housewives of the area. The dining hall was decorated with the latest oil-paintings of Mr. Gordon Pearce and the portrait of Mr. Arthur Latcham, who generously bought the school when it was closed and donated it to the township for community use. Picnic tables were placed on the grounds for the overflow and the intermittent showers cleared soon enough for those who preferred outdoor meals. The folks then gathered under the trees in the cool of the evening discussing crops and renewing acquaintances till the hall was cleared for dancing. There is a certain nostalgia as many attended Atha School in the substantial brick building which has been on this site since 1864. A large number stayed till near midnight to listen and dance to the smooth rhythm of The Country Cousins, a local group made up of Albert, Eileen, Joanne and Lorraine Draper. A carry-over from the days when this was the local school is the presentation of gift certificates to grade eight graduates. President John Wilson gave the awards to Ron McDowell, Earl Draper and Brett and Greg Davis.
