HEADFORD - At Headford Church on August 20 at 7 p.m., Richard Burton attended to receive his lovely bride, Jo-Ann Ritchie. Rev. Davies of Stouffville conducted the ceremony while Mrs. S. Rumble played the organ.

Jo-Ann was radiant, dressed in a long white dress of tulle with appliques embroidered on her long train. Her shoulder length veil was held in position by an unusual headpiece. She carried a posy of red roses.

The two bridesmaids were a picture too, in their long dresses, the bodice of floral embroidery while the full skirts were of pale mauve tulle. They carried pretty mauve, pink and white carnation posies.

The ushers and best man were Keith and Larry Burton (brothers of the groom), who did a good job.

The reception was held at the Summitview Restaurant where 75 guests were entertained. The honeymoon is being spent in Quebec and the groom wore a maroon shirt to match the bride's going-away dress. The happy couple will be residing in Guelph.
