104th birthday

Mrs. Effie Alberta Cleary, formerly of Parkview Home, Stouffville and now at Cooper's Rest Home, Mount Albert, marked her 104th birthday, Aug. 24. While still alert, Mrs. Cleary is confined to bed much of the time, the effects of a broken hip, suffered three months ago.

Mrs. J. MacDonald of Ottawa, has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Albert Batt, Main Street West, Stouffville.

History in action
The annual "History in Action Day" on the grounds of the Brougham Museum, Pickering Twp., is planned for Saturday, Sept. 18. Many residents of the Stouffville area attend this event.

Rev. and Mrs. R.A. Price of North Fort Myers, Florida, visited recently with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hisey, Lloyd Avenue, Stouffville.

Keys found
A set of keys were found by George Gleave, on Main Street near the Post Office last week. The attached licence plate registration is N90-260 for '71. The owner may pick them up at The Tribune Office.

Antique Show
The 8th annual antique show and sale, sponsored by St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, will be held in the Markham Arena, Sept. 10 and 11. The exhibition will feature many unique displays, including a sword collection by Markham's West. A hot roast beef dinner will be served each evening in the arena's new dining hall. At the same time, guests will be treated to a fashion parade by the Patricia Bridal and Dress Salon.

Vice-chairman
Mrs. A.G. Thompson, an elder in St. James Presbyterian Church, Stouffville, has been appointed vice-chairman on the Board of World Missions. The announcement was made at the 97th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, held at Knox College. The chairman is Rev. George Malcolm of Cobourg.

Swiss Family Robinson
The Children's Theatre Club will re-open, Saturday, Sept. 11 at the Whitechurch Centennial Centre. The first film to be featured is "Swiss Family Robinson". Starting time is 9:30 a.m.

Married 46 years
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Morgan, married 46 years, Aug. 22. Mrs. Morgan is the daughter of the late Nelson Wagg, a North American plowing champion, back in 1901. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Morgan.

The many friends of Mr. K.R. (Shine) Davis, are pleased to see him back at his regular place of business on Main Street, following five days in Sunnybrook Hospital, Toronto.

In hospital
Mr. Rae Sargent, Victoria Street, is a patient in York County Hospital, Newmarket.

Event cancelled
Like many outdoor events, Saturday, the steam threshing demonstration on the Gordon Kydd farm, Quaker Hill, had to be cancelled due to inclement weather. If a future date is arranged, it will be announced in The Tribune.

MARKHAM
Katherine Ann Burkholder became the bride of Ray Bauman in a pretty wedding in Wideman Mennonite Church, July 24, 1971.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Burkholder, Markham, R.R. 2. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Bauman, St. Jacobs, Ontario.

Candelabra together with snapdragons and calendula clarkie graced the interior of the church for the occasion.

Rev. Paul Martin performed the ceremony at 3:30 p.m. A men's quartette from Markham provided the music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white empire waisted gown of chiffon over crepe with rose appliques on the bodice. She wore an elbow-length veil and train and carried white carnations, lily of the valley and yellow rose buds.

The attendants to the bride were Ruth Burkholder, Stouffville; Ruth Speck, Markham; and Doris Brillinger of Mississauga. They were attractive in yellow empire-waisted gowns of chiffon over crepe. Their flowers were white and yellow mums.

The groomsmen were Richard Snyder of St. Jacobs. The ushers were Gerald Snyder and James Burkholder. They wore white tuxedos with a yellow rose in their jacket lapels.

Mrs. Burkholder received the guests in a pink and mauve crepe/street-length dress with beige accessories.

Mrs. Bauman assisted in a blue, street-length dress with navy accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink and yellow roses.

For travelling to eastern Ontario and north-eastern New York State, the bride chose a green and gold sleeveless knit dress with beige accessories. The happy couple are residing near Kitchener.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bauman, married July 24, 1971 in the Wideman Mennonite Church. The bride is the former Katherine Ann Burkholder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Burkholder, Markham, R.R. 2.

Furrow Queen

On Saturday, Sept. 18, a Junior Plowing Match will be held on the property of Carl Timbers, conc. 6, Whitechurch. At that time, a "Furrow Queen" will be selected to represent York at the International, Oct. 12-26. Girls, residing in the Region and wishing to participate, are asked to contact Mr. Fred Timbers (640-2711) prior to the junior match date.

Recovering
The many friends of Mr. Aubrey Spang, R.R. 3, Claremont, will be pleased to know he is making a successful recovery following a recent stroke that partially paralyzed his left side.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Moyer and family, Dickson's Hill, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Braun, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bruan and family of Kitchener and Mr. Lloyd Moyer, Dorothy and Mildred and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moyer. The Willard Braun and Warren Moyer families showed pictures taken on their recent trip to the West

STOUFFVILLE
Eight out of sixty-three display booths are still available for the Stouffville Trade Fair in the Arena, Sept. 9, 10 and 11. The sponsor is Branch 459 (Stouffville) of the Royal Canadian Legion. Persons wishing to reserve space still available should contact Bob Campbell (640-1353) or Jim McKellar (640-3410). The big show will be opened Sept. 9 at 7 p.m. by Mayor Ken Laushway and M. P. P., York North, Bill Hodgson. An invitation has also been extended to M. P. John Roberts, but he may be in Ottawa on that date. A feature, as in past years, will be a fashion show by Paul's Dry Goods, Stouffville. There will also be balloons for the children and a new innovation, a free ride in the Hydro's aerial bucket, to be set up on the site. At 9 p.m., Sept. 11, a draw will be made on a 26-inch Philco consol color television set, now on display in the window of Raymer Interiors, Main Street.

Sunoco Award
Hunt's Sunoco, Main Street West, Stouffville, has once again received the Sun Oil Company's Award of Merit, based on appearance and service. The proprietor is Mickey Hunt, Elm Road. Tied for the top spot was a second station in Mississauga.
