STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Help wanted
The new season for Boy Scout and Cub activities will begin soon - if more leaders are found. Persons willing to assist are urged to call Bill Davidson at 640-2523.

Horse Show
A combined English and Western Horse Show, the last of the season, will be held on the grounds of Al's Tack Shop, Vandorf Road, west of Hwy. 48 on Sunday, Sept. 19. Events open at 10 a.m.

Pool repairs
Belz Pools Limited of Stouffville has been authorized by Council to complete repairs to the deck of the community pool this fall. At the same time, an addition, measuring 20 by 40 feet will be constructed. This project, to cost an estimated $9,500, is sponsored by the Lions Club.

Ass't. manager
The Crosby Memorial Community Centre at Unionville is hiring an assistant rink manager, with employment to begin in October. An advertisement in this week's Tribune.

Three awards
Beverly Bell, R.R.3, Claremont, gained 5 awards in vocal competition at the Canadian National Exhibition, including two gold, two silver and one bronze. Beverly is a student of Mrs. Peggy Clark, Markham.

Shivaree party
Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Miller, R.R.4, Stouffville, were shivareed recently at a noisy surprise party tendered by members of the Unionville Junior Farmers. Noise-makers of all descriptions were brought out of moth balls for the occasion, even a renowned horse fiddle. Following the 'serenade', the visitors were made welcome at a social half-hour that followed.

Miss Suzanne Stover of London, Ont., spent a week with her grandparents and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Forsyth and Wayne, Hwy. 47, north of town.

New service times
The congregations of Stouffville United and St. James' Presbyterian Churches are reminded of new worship times that commenced Sept. 5. Worship in the United Church begins at 10 a.m. Service in the Presbyterian Church is at 11:15 a.m.

Shop Closed
Mr. K. R. 'Shine' Davis announces that his Main Street Tobacco Shop will be closed Sept. 13, until further notice.

91st birthday
Congratulations to Miss Elizabeth Williamson, now of Toronto, but well known in the Markham community, on the occasion of her 91st birthday, (today), Sept. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Leslie Taylor, following their wedding, June 5, 1971 in McMaster Divinity Chapel. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thorpe, Stoney Creek and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Taylor, Goodwood.

Pretty wedding

STONEY CREEK
On Saturday, June 5, in McMaster Divinity College Chapel, Elizabeth Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Thorpe, 31 Burwell Street, Stoney Creek and Brian Leslie Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Taylor of Goodwood, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J.W. Oliver. An arrangement of pink and white gladioli, mums and carnations decorated the altar. The pew markers were white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk ligoda fashioned with a high neckline, empire waist and the bishop sleeves. It was adorned with re-embroidered alencon lace. A full bouffant chapel train trimmed with matching lace and self buttons was held in place by a large bow and streamers. Her headpiece was a cap of lace enhanced with crystals and was held with a full length silk illusion hand rolled veil complete with appliques of matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley held with white satin ribbon. The maid of honor was Miss Sandra Straw of Hamilton and the bridesmaids were Miss Susan Gee, Miss Karen Crozier, Mrs. Rick Runney and Mrs. Randy Butts, sister of the groom. Their gowns were fashioned of apple green silk and worsted used in the bodice as a bolero effect and in the floor length skirt. White voile scattered with paler green polka dots was inset in the bodice and in the full length sleeves. They wore matching, full brimmed hats and carried bouquets of two-toned pink carnations, held with pink satin sleeves. The best man was Paul Taylor of Toledo, Ohio, brother of the groom. The ushers were Terry Thorpe of Stoney Creek, brother of the bride, Vern Lowe and Fred Bowler, Toronto and John Spears of Kingston. Miss Marta Middleton, the soloist, sang The Wedding Hymn, The Lord's Prayer and the Alleluia Chorus. A reception followed at the Glendale Golf and Country Club. The mother of the bride received in a pink silk suede gown with pink beading enhancing the scalloped front panel.

Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses. The mother of the groom wore a matching dress and coat of mauve lace and a mauve orchid was her corsage.

For their honeymoon trip to Bermuda, the bride chose a dress and coat ensemble. The sleeveless dress had a cream bodice and a red skirt. The fitted coat was of the same red wool crepe. Her shoes and purse were of black patent and her corsage was a white gardenia.

Betty Anne and Brian now reside in Barrie, where they are employed by the Simcoe County Board of Education.

Antique-Exhibition

Twenty dealers display wares

MARKHAM - Some impressive and unique local collections will be on display September 10 and 11 in the Markham Arena. These are the dates of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Antique Exhibition.

Wally West, a resident of Markham, will display his collection of swords. Included in the collection are several medals honoring outstanding service during the Fenian raids.

A Cedar Grove collector, Austin Reesor, will show his collection of antique radios. Other special exhibitions will feature antique firearms, rare old clocks, and 18th-Century dolls. In addition to these displays, over 20 antique dealers will be offering their wares at the show. Admission will be one dollar, and a hot roast beef dinner will be served for $2.25.

Miss Bertha Stouffer, Mill Street, enjoyed holidays with Mrs. Walter Stouffer, Kitchener.
