STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Bowling starts
Children's league five-pin bowling is starting up again in Stouffville. The Stouffville Bowling Centre has announced that the season will begin Oct. 16 for children 9 to 14. Further information can be obtained from the Centre.

Hit by bar
Mrs. Kay Haslam, 9th Line South and an employee with the firm of Button and Armstrong, Main Street, suffered a nasty blow on the head, when struck by a steel bar, while walking near the Post Office. Workmen were busy re-building the sidewalk in the area at the time. Mrs. Haslam was given a medical check and later returned to her clerical position.

Travel by slides
Members and guests attending the Oct. 4 meeting of the Stouffville United Church Women, were treated to an all-colour trip to South America via slides shown by Glenn Ratcliff. Mr. Ratcliff recently returned from a vacation there. The scenery was beautiful and the commentary most educational. The devotional part of the program was presented by Mrs. Helen DeWitt, Mrs. Arlene Holden and Mrs. Douglas Davis. A vocal trio, including Mary Grant, Joyce Miles and Fern Timbers, rendered two lovely numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nighswander returned last week from a motor trip that took them as far west as Manitoba. Mr. Nighswander is the Administrator at Parkview Home.

Dinner to honor Faye O'Callaghan

Mrs. Faye O'Callaghan, formerly of Stouffville and now of Thornhill, will be honored at a testimonial dinner, Nov. 5, at Aurora Highlands. Mrs. O'Callaghan is giving up the position of Secretary-Treasurer for the York County Branch, Canadian Mental Health Association, an office she has held for over ten years. Tickets at $10 single or $15 per couple, are available by calling 773-4323, not later than Oct. 29.

Meeting cancelled
The next meeting of Whitchurch-Stouffville Council has been postponed to Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m.

Markham Clothing Centre
The Markham Clothing Centre is holding a sale at St. Andrew's United Church, Markham, Oct. 27 from 1 to 4:30 p.m. Items will include Halloween and dress-up costumes, jewelry, uniforms for adult and youth groups, baking, refreshments and nearly-new clothing for all ages. Donations would be appreciated. For further information, call the Centre at 294-4915 or 640-1841.

Horticultural meeting
The Stouffville Horticultural Society will meet in the lower auditorium of St. James Presbyterian Church, Monday, Oct. 18 at 8 p.m. Floral exhibits (those fortunate enough to escape the frost) are to be placed between 5 and 6 p.m. Mrs. Grant Wells of Lemonville will show pictures taken on a recent trip to Western Canada.

Activity cards compulsory

STOUFFVILLE - In an attempt to get students involved with their school, the Student Council at Stouffville District Secondary School has made Activity Cards compulsory this year. The cards, costing $3 each, were optional in former years. The revenue produced by selling a card to each student will go to the Council. According to President Bob Carder, this money will be used to support school teams, buy decorations for dances and other uses on behalf of the student body.

Offer to help
Following the recent fire at Tam-O-Shanter, a large number of skaters found themselves without ice. In an effort to help out in this crisis, the Stouffville Figure Skating Club has sent letters offering ice time to some of the skaters affected. To date, no replies have been received.

Judge at Match
Fred and Win Timbers of Stouffville and Bill Simpson, Ballantrae, are judging this week at the International Plowing Match at R. R. 1, Nanticoke, near Jarvis. The Award's Banquet is at Hagersville.

Second anniversary
The Alumni Association of the Royal Conservatory of Music (Markham Chapter), are entertaining friends at the home of Mrs. E. Mildred Temple, Meadowbrook Lane, Unionville, Monday evening, Oct. 18. The occasion is the Chapter's second anniversary, having received their Charter, Oct. 29, 1969.

Who can vote
Who is eligible to vote, Oct. 21? All Canadian citizens and British subjects who have resided in Ontario for 12 months and are 18 years of age or over.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry McKay

Unionville area boy chooses lovely bride

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wayne McKay, following their marriage in Hilltop Chapel, Islington. The bride is the former Melody Gaye Lock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lock of Islington. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Auston McKay, R. R. 1, Unionville.

ISLINGTON - Hilltop Chapel in Islington was the setting for a beautiful June wedding when Larry Wayne McKay took as his bride Melody Gaye Lock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lock of Islington. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Auston McKay of R. R. 1, Unionville, formerly of Willowdale. Rev. Mitchell performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She was lovely in a floor-length original gown with scalloped train, of white peau de soie fashioned with empire waist, scalloped neckline, long sleeves of french lace with an overlay of lace. Her veil of tulle was held in place by a crown of sequins and tiny pearls. She carried a cascade of red sweetheart roses and white mums.

The bride was attended by her only sister, Mrs. Veerlynda McKay as matron of honor. Miss Sharon McKay, only sister of the groom and Miss

Dale Smith were bridesmaids. Little Suzanne Turner, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. They wore identical floor-length gowns, slightly A-line, of mauve and white chiffon over taffeta with long sleeves. They had purple flowers in their hair and all carried bouquets of purple and white mums.

The groom's only brother, Jim McKay of Agincourt was best man. Bryan McKay and Gordon McKay, cousins of the groom were ushers. Little Kevin Turner was ring bearer.

The reception was held at the Jane Seven Country Club where guests were received by the mother of the bride, dressed in a floor-length gown of mauve with beaded bodice and white accessories. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses and mums. Mrs. McKay assisted, wearing a floor-length gown of peacock blue chiffon and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white rose buds.

After the dinner, an evening of dancing was enjoyed by all and the happy couple were given a joyous send off for a honeymoon trip to Banff and Calgary. The bride wore a white wool pantsuit with red accessories and corsage of red rosebuds. They are now residing on Crosby Avenue in Richmond Hill.

Prior to her marriage, the bride received many beautiful showers. Hostesses were - Mrs. Marion McKay of Concord; Mrs. Campbell of Downsview; Mrs. Marlene Turner of Richmond Hill; Mrs. Florence Kalar of Whitby and Miss Dale Smith of Islington.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Davis and daughter, Rachelle and Mr. Douglas Davis, Weston, spent Thanksgiving with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Davis, R.R.3, Stouffville.
