

Lady cubmaster

By Rosemary Timms
CLAREMONT - Cubmaster or Cubmistress? Regardless of proper terminology, the Claremont Cubs have a new leader - a lady. She's Jayne Hartley, R. R. 3, Claremont. Her assistants are Mrs. David Neal, Jean McNish, Ruth Murray, Fred Allman and Donna Wideman. The Claremont Scoutmaster is Ken Brown. His assistants are Tom Appleby and Dwight Goden. On Oct. 5, a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Keith Ward. It was agreed that the Ladies Auxiliary and the Group Committee should be combined into one organization. Members are - Jack Anderson, president; Mrs. David Neal, secretary; Mrs. Edith Morgan, treasurer; Mrs. Jeanette Ward, Alma Woolhead, Joan Albert, Gordon Brook, Frank Griffen, Barbara Burnell, Jim Murray and Larry Burnell, directors. As part of a fund-raising campaign, the Group Committee is holding a dance in the Community Hall, Nov. 13 at 8:30 p.m. Music will be by Frank Barkey, Altona.

The Claremont Youth Club is holding a Hallowe'en masquerade dance in the Community Hall, Oct. 29 from 8 to midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Evans will be honored at a miscellaneous shower, Oct. 20 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Evans.

The congregation of the Claremont United Church will hold its anniversary service, Oct. 17. The guest pastor is Rev. James Milroy of Rogers Memorial Presbyterian Church, Toronto. The guest soloist is Mr. David MacDonald of Agincourt.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. Gordon Riddle in the passing of his wife, Verna May, Oct. 8, in Scarborough Hospital. Service was held from the Kent Milroy Funeral Home with interment, Stouffville Cemetery.

Claremont farm for cadet training centre

An application before the Pickering Committee of Adjustment, to utilize part of a 90-acre Claremont district farm for a Cadet training centre, is causing several local residents some concern. No decision will be handed down until Oct. 28. Planes similar to this two-seater Cessna will be used. —Jas. Thomas.

Yea!,
Stouffville

STOUFFVILLE - An outstanding group of attractive young ladies makes up the cheerleading squad at Stouffville District Secondary School this year.

The captain, Sue Clark, is also secretary to the Student Council. Members of the team are: Debbie Smith, Lios Empringham, Heather Longino, Cathy Richardson, Heather Glenn, Bev Miller, Sue Eidt, Elizabeth Kraft, Nancy Roper, Kathy Meleta and Janice Shirk.

In a classic example of "gilding the lily", the Student Council has supplied new uniforms for the cheerleaders.
