STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Fall dinner
The annual fall dinner, sponsored by the Stouffville United Church Women, will be held, Friday, from 5 to 7 p.m., in the lower auditorium, Stouffville United Church. Tickets are available at the door or in advance from Mrs. John Keeler, Mrs. Ted Cadieux, Mrs. Stuart Watson or Mrs. Helen DeWitt.

'Air Cadet Night'
An 'Air Cadet Night' will be held at the Stouffville Legion Hall, Tuesday, Oct. 26 at 8 p.m. Movies and slides will be shown, followed by refreshments. Boys, 13 years and over and their parents are invited. Sufficient membership is desired to form a car pool to meeting headquarters at Newmarket. For further information, call Bill Kingsley (640-1973) or Ed Macdonald at Orchard Park School.

Attends funeral
Bob Hassard, Lloyd Avenue, an ex-Maple Leaf, attended the funeral service for the late Stafford Smythe, Oct. 14, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Mr. Smythe was the president of Maple Leaf Gardens.

Road blocked
A pre-Halloween prank prompted a call to Stouffville firemen, Sunday night. A barricade had been set up on 19th Avenue, between concessions 9 and 10, then set ablaze.

St. James W.M.S.
The W.M.S. of St. James Presbyterian Church, held a Thankoffering Meeting, Oct. 7 in the church hall. A color film entitled 'Sing the Glories of Africa' was shown, with related comments by Mrs. A.D. Powell and Mrs. A.G. Thompson. The president, Mrs. Bruce Davidson was in charge and hosted the social period that followed.

Home sold
Mrs. Dorothy Daniels has sold her home on Rupert Avenue to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richard Jackson of Goodwood. Mrs. Daniels has taken up residence in the Dublin Place Apartments, Markham.

Sunday skate
Beginning this Sunday, there will be public skating in the Stouffville Arena from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Kellington, formerly of Stouffville and now of Newmarket, are visiting with the Talbot's, in their new home near Oxford England.

Graduate

Mr. Dennis Forsyth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Forsyth, Stouffville, has graduated from Seneca College of Applied Arts and Technology. He received high honors in Mechanical Technology.

'Salesman of the Year'
Mr. Garfield Hamilton, well-known Markham resident and an employee with Markham Chrysler-Dodge, has been named 'Salesman of the Year' in competition across Canada. Mr. Hamilton, 48 Main Street, will receive an engraved plaque from the Master Salesman's Guild.

Couple honored
The Bethel Assembly held a banquet, Saturday evening in the Stouffville Masonic Hall, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Beacome, South Street, who are returning to their home town of Clinton, Ont. They were presented with a lovely clock radio as a token of appreciation for their work in the church where they attended.

Color tour
Mrs. Percy Tarr, Miss Edna Hoover, Mrs. Thomas Brown, all of Stouffville and Mrs. Harold Chadwick of Unionville, returned home, Sunday from a six-day tour by Travelways bus. They visited such points as Newport, Lake Placid, Rhode Island and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Jerman of Toronto were recent visitors at the home of Mr. Jerman's sister, Mrs. W.J. McCowan, Main Street East. Mrs. McCowan returned with them for a few days. Mr. Jerman is a former employee in the Stouffville Post Office.

Five feet across
Mrs. Win Timbers, Winona Drive, Stouffville, is well-known for her lovely flower garden. This fall, however, she has produced one plant that surely breaks all existing records for size. It's a mum and it measures 5 ft., 6 inches across.

Married in Scarborough

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McKay are shown here following their marriage, June 18, 1971, in the Church of the Master, Scarborough. The bride is the former Margaret Joicelyn Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Reid, Leamington. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McKay, Stouffville, R.R. 1. The happy couple are now residing in Scarborough.

Car draw
The annual car draw on a 1972 model car, sponsored by the Stouffville Lions Club, will be held in the Legion Hall, Friday evening, Oct. 29. Tickets are still available from Lion members.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan, R. R. 1, Claremont, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson and family, Fortwich, Ont. They had the pleasure of attending service in the Listowel Missionary Church where Rev. Arthur Walsh, formerly of Stouffville, is the pastor.

World Match
Mr. Bill Talbot, formerly of Ninth Line North, Whitechurch, and now living near Oxford, England, attended the World Plowing Match at Wallington, Devonshire.

Quiet wedding

STOUFFVILLE - A quiet but lovely wedding was held Oct. 8, 1971, in St. Giles' Kingsway Presbyterian Church when Audrey Myrtle Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker of Stouffville, became the bride of Mr. Albert Remy Jackson, son of Mrs. Fred C. Jackson, Toronto.

Rev. Wm. Adamson officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The bride was lovely in a silver-grey moire dress and jacket. Her flowers were miniature white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Eileen Jarvis. The best man was a close friend of the groom, Mr. Thomas E. Walker of Mississauga. The usher was Mr. Colin Davison, Toronto. The reception was held at the Bayview Golf and Country Club. The happy couple will reside in Toronto.

Remember to vote, Thursday, Oct. 21. Polls are open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Sunday skate beginning this Sunday, there will be public skating in the Stouffville Arena from 2 to 4 p.m.

Air Cadet Squadron

Holds membership drive

STOUFFVILLE - In an effort to interest additional boys in the activities of the Air Cadet League of Canada and, in particular, No. 94 Squadron at Newmarket, an 'Air Cadet Night' is planned for the Stouffville Legion Hall, Tuesday, Oct. 26 at 8 p.m.

Boys, 13 years and over, with their parents, are invited. The Squadron now has a membership of 73 and it is hoped to increase this number to 100.

With additional members from Stouffville, a 'car pool' will be organized to facilitate transportation to and from meetings. Instruction is provided in the old York Manor Home on Yonge Street.

The program includes such advantages as flying scholarships, exchange visits, band practice and training flights. Cadet training is not part of any military organization. The Commanding Officer is Al Johnson of Markham.

Further information may be obtained in Stouffville from Bill Kingsley (640-1973) or Ed Macdonald, staff teacher, Orchard Park Public School.

Growth Investment

When you invest in Canada Savings Bonds, you invest in the growth of your country. This year's bonds which mature in 1980, offer an average annual yield of 7.19%. Because of the compound interest feature which lets you earn interest on interest, a $100 bond will return $187, if held for the full nine years. It can, however, be cashed anytime. At face value plus accrued monthly interest.

Canada Savings Bonds are available in denominations of $50 to $25,000. They may be purchased for cash or in monthly installments, and each purchaser may buy up to $50,000 worth.
