

Hunters' holiday

By Betty Pegg
GREENWOOD
This week, many of the area's hunting enthusiasts are wandering about in the north woods, looking for deer. No reports on their success, if any, have yet been heard. Those away include: Gerald Henning at Monteaige; Sid Pugh near Marmora; Ken Brooks, Ken McTaggart, Ron Hoard, Ed Pascoe, Milton Pegg, Brian McTaggart, Don Pegg, John Carlsson, Alfred Pegg, Gerald and Will Pegg at Whitestone Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Hicks were in Buffalo, Saturday and on Sunday, entertained Mrs. Hicks' brother, Harry Kent and friends of Toronto.

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Henning, were honored at a miscellaneous shower in the Christian Education Centre of Greenwood United Church, Oct. 29. They received many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Goodwood visited Sunday with Mrs. George Griffin.

Approximately $400 was realized from the turkey supper, Oct. 27.

Mrs. Andrew and Ian are now home from Scarboro Centenary Hospital.

Miss Shirley Young of Monteaige Valley and Patsy Young of Oshawa, visited on the weekend with the Henning family.

A euchre party is planned for the C.E. Centre, Friday with Janice Skinner and David Cole in charge.

Unit 1 of the U.C.W. will meet Nov. 11 rather than Nov. 4. The location will be announced. The roll call is: a woman of the Bible, Mrs. Ed Pascoe is in charge of the program. Unit 2 will meet Nov. 10.

Mr. Palmer Morden and Lyle Morden, brother and cousin of Andy Morden, visited Sunday with the Morden families.

Callers are reminded that this change does not become effective until noon, Dec. 1.

A pamphlet outlining the new Police number system are included in accounts mailed out in October.

Successful cemetery bee

By Ruth Hutchings
GREEN RIVER - A successful bee was held Saturday at Brunswick Hill Cemetery. It was necessary, due to vandalism at the site several weeks ago. The committee appreciates the assistance offered.

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Hawthorne were 'honored' by friends and neighbors at a recent shivaree party.

The annual congregational potluck supper will be held Nov. 12.

Anniversary services will be held next Sunday at 11 a.m., and 7.30 p.m., at the church with Rev. Walker the guest speaker. The 'Messengers', a quartet from Uxbridge, will provide special music.

The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. D. MacPhaden back again.

The Ambassador and Happy Hour Clubs will meet, Nov. 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Denton Brown, R.R. 1, Stouffville, and Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grove, enjoyed a pleasant motor trip to the East Coast.
