

Senior student receives proficiency award

One of the most prized awards, presented annually at Graduation Exercises for Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, is an engraved wristwatch for General Proficiency. The winner for 1971 is Erica deBruyn of Bloomington. The donor is Ken Waggoner, Stouffville. —Jas. Thomas.

Parkview residents welcome visitors

STOUFFVILLE - We appreciate very much the invitation by the Editor of The Tribune to contribute regularly, news from Parkview Home. We now have a community of over 100 residents and approximately fifty staff members at Parkview, and we hope that as we share with readers of The Tribune the happenings here, they will find Parkview News interesting and informative.

Programs during the week included the regular Monday morning Bible Study Hour, and the Tuesday evening inspirational meeting with Rev. Wm. vanderBent, our Home Pastor. On Thursday evening, Mrs. Harry Pugh showed pictures, accompanied by solos by Mrs. Alma Oldham. On Sunday evening, Rev. J.L. Carder, of the United Church, Stouffville, conducted the worship service. Special singing was supplied by the choir.

The many visitors to residents during the week included: Pamela Phelan, Brett Davidson, all from Thornhill, with Mrs. Clara Smith; S. Horley, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Wood and L. Fry of Toronto with Mrs. Rideout; Mrs. Jean Beare; of Markham with Mrs. Hills; Mr. Win Timbers, Stouffville with Mr. David Tran; Mrs. Bacon of Stouffville with Mrs. Susanne Darlington;

Large auction crowd

STOUFFVILLE - An auction held Nov. 13 on O'Brien Avenue, attracted a large crowd in spite of persistent drizzle.

Calling bids on the property of the late Charles Atkinson were auctioneers Walter Atkinson (no relation) and Lloyd Wilson. The house had been sold previously.

Mr. Atkinson termed it "a very good sale". A piano brought $310 and a hanging lamp sold for $160. The late Mr. Atkinson was a carpenter of considerable ability. His tools were included.
