Heads snowmobile club

STOUFFVILLE
Marvin Betz, South St.

Stouffville, is the president of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Snowmobile Club.

Memberships in the organization are still being accepted. Others on the executive include - Bob Howard, 1st vice-president; Ken Roberts, 2nd vice-president; Wes Toman, treasurer and directors, Fred Castle, Al Hudson, Mo Halsted and Mickey Hunt.

The Club is confident that through its own organization, it can impose and enforce an improved standard of operation. In this way, the police are not placed in a sometimes embarrassing position of trying to enforce a bylaw that goes beyond their means of control.

Regulations include - elimination of unnecessary noise; respect of a night-time curfew; respect for private property and obedience of safety rules.

One of the main objectives is the setting up of snowmobile trails, far removed from residential areas.

The membership fee is $3 for a single machine and $1 for each additional unit. A cheque, payable to the Whitchurch-Stouffville Snowmobile Club should be sent to Box 760, Stouffville.

Markham licks icing from Wexford cake

STOUFFVILLE - The formalities were well organized - an official opening at centre ice; the Mayor dropping the puck between the teams' two captains, introductions, photographs, announcements, everything.

Markham club, that on such special occasions, the home team, in this case, the Wexford 'Raiders', are supposed to win.

That was the only thing lacking on the night - a victory. But Markham took that, 5-1, outscoring the 'Raiders' 3-1 in the final period.

indeed disappointing to Wexford supporters, the game itself was not. It was an excellent exhibition of hockey, from the goaltenders through to the forwards. Penalties hurt Wexford's chances, particularly in the third, when they weakened under Markham's offensive power.

assist on his team's fourth tally. He also figured in a sideline scuffle with Markham's Craig MacPherson, coming out on top of his much heavier adversary.

Both received majors. The year's largest crowd, over 500 fans, attended the match.
