This triplex, being erected on Main St. W., was the subject of considerable discussion at a recent Planning Committee meeting. If an application presently before the Committee of Adjustment is successful, each unit will have a frontage of about 17 feet. —Mark Niblett.

Stouffville Brigade

Special recognition for firefighters

STOUFFVILLE
 The Volunteer Fire Department has been presented with a special award.
 Chief Walter Smith accepted on behalf of the Department. The award, given by the local Kinsmen, consists of a letter praising the firemen for their work, and expressing gratitude for the excellent services provided. There is also a special keyring for each member of the Department.
 Russ Holder, Kinsmen President, presented the award to Chief Smith at a meeting on Dec. 9 at the Sleepy Hollow Golf Club.

Celebrates birthday

STOUFFVILLE
 Septimus J. Foote, a resident of the 7th Concession, recently celebrated his 92nd birthday.
 While there was no actual party, friends and neighbors dropped in to wish Mr. Foote a happy birthday. Despite his years, Mr. Foote remains fairly active and in good health; until the recent spell of bad weather, he went out for walks regularly.
 Born in Shrubmount, near Newmarket, Mr. Foote moved to this area at the age of 14. He has lived on the 7th ever since.

Manager buys firm

Compton Rodriguez, former manager at Watt's Electric and Plumbing for the past seven years, has purchased the business from Harry Watts. Watt's Electric has been operating in Markham for the past 27 years.
 The new name of the business will be Comtech Electric Plumbing and Heating and it will continue to operate from 106 Main St. N., Markham.

Senior citizens dinner

The annual Senior Citizen's Christmas dinner was held at the Whitechurch Centennial Centre, Friday, December 10th, with 92 guests attending. Rev. G. R. Inglis was Master of Ceremonies and said the Grace. Guests enjoyed a dinner of beef and ham, prepared and served by a number of ladies from the community, and their efforts were very much appreciated.
 The oldest lady present was Mrs. Paxton, who is 96 years old. The oldest gentleman was Mr. Wallace, who is 84. Both received gifts of ice cream cakes. The cake for Mrs. Paxton was donated by Mr. Jack Wallwork.
 For several years Mr. Clifford Wallwork of Ballantrae has organized and hosted this annual dinner.
 This year Mr. Wallwork has not been well, and the organization of the dinner was handled by Mrs. Cecilia Gardner, Chairman of the Centre. However, Mr. Wallwork was able to attend the dinner.

Area resident dies

STOUFFVILLE
 A man widely known in this district, Mr. Russell Raymer, passed away Dec. 8.
 Mr. Raymer, 70, lived for some time at Dickson's Hill and was an active member of the Memorial Missionary Church. At the time of his death, he was living in Willowdale.
 Mr. Raymer is survived by his wife, Hazel, a son, Russell D. Raymer of Mississauga, and two daughters, Dawna (Mrs. C. Prosser) of Indiana and Olive (Mrs. Lloyd Wilson) of Uxbridge. Also surviving him are two brothers, Lorne, of Creemore, Ont., and Edwin, of Montreal.
 Services for the late Mr. Raymer were held Dec. 11 at Banfield Missionary Church, Willowdale. The Rev. Alfred Rees officiating. Pallbearers were Clarence Pettigrew, Henry Koop, G. Wm. Kitching, Arthur Sherk, Harold Jackson, and John Pipher.
 Interment took place at Dickson's Hill Cemetery.

Sea Rovers hold party

STOUFFVILLE
 A beautifully decorated and floodlit stage and tree formed a fitting background for the Sea Rovers Christmas Party last Friday night at Stouffville Baptist Church. Some features of the program were group singing, rhythm band by the little folk in the Dolphin and Starfish group, a Christmas pageant by the Penguin group and the film, Mystery of Bethlehem. Following the program, Christmas treats were distributed and refreshments were served by the ladies.
 Contributing their efforts to make the evening a success were group leaders Mrs. G. Warwood, Mrs. Pat McMullen and Mrs. F. Hannah, assistants Mrs. J. Carter and Mrs. E. Morden and others who helped with decorating and refreshments.
 A fine Bible School Christmas Program featuring the play "He Is Come", will be held Dec. 18 at 7:30 p.m.
 On Sunday, Dec. 19 a White Gift Service will be held at 11 a.m., and a beautiful Candlelight Service at 7 p.m., featuring a candlelight
