STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Aid Fire Fund
Chairman Jim McKellar and the committee in charge of the Stouffville Fire Fund, are appreciative of a cheque for $50, received from the Community Club at Cedar Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rau and son Stefan from London, England, have arrived in Stouffville to spend a holiday month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Nolan, Duchess St. Mrs. Rau and son came by air from London and Mr. Rau from South Africa where he has been on business.

Wins turkey
Mrs. Ernest Pilkey, Fairview Avenue, was the winner of a 20 pound turkey in a lucky draw, held Saturday, at the Claremont Community Christmas Show.

Winnipeg Hospital
Theodore Nielsen, better known to many Stouffville folk as 'Sunshine', is a patient in Winnipeg General Hospital. He was admitted for emergency treatment while hitch-hiking 'east' from Victoria. Mr. Nielsen is a diabetic. He expects to be confined there until the end of the month.

Rabies prevalent
While no cases of rabies have been reported in the built-up area of Stouffville, several persons are receiving treatment in the Gormley district after coming in contact with infected animals. Stouffville veterinarian, Dr. Gerald Blackburn told The Tribune that to date, two cows, two dogs and a cat, all in the Gormley - Yonge Street area have either died or had to be destroyed. In some sections of York, the disease has been described as an 'epidemic'.

Bride wed in garden ceremony

COLLINGWOOD - A lovely garden wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Moyer, Blue Mountain Farm R. R. 1, Collingwood when their daughter Helen Marjorie became the bride of Dr. D. Bruce Snyder, Toronto.

The ceremony was held July 31, 1971 at 2:30 p.m. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Snyder, Kitchener.

The officiating pastor was Rev. David Clarke, uncle of the bride assisted by Rev. James Reusser, Kitchener the parents' minister. James McDowell of Markham, cousin of the bride, was organist. Paul Enns, Toronto, was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, made her own wedding gown of pure white silk with wide gold embroidery bordering gown and veil from a sari sent from India by her aunt Miss Louise Clarke. She carried yellow rosebuds.

Karen Moyer, maid of honor and Jane Moyer, bridesmaid attended their sister. They wore identical gowns of pure silk sapphire blue organza over flowered printed sharkskin with short puffed sleeves and U-shaped neckline. Their flowers were golden daisies.

Dr. Wayne Nimigan, Toronto was groomsmen. The ushers were: Dr. Okky Oei and Dr. Michael Chambers both of Toronto and Ian Moyer, Collingwood, brother of the bride.

Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Snyder, married July 31, 1971, in a garden setting at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Moyer, R. R. 1, Collingwood.

matching hat. For travelling to Kansas the bride chose a white swiss Jacquard cotton pant suit with pink chiffon scarf and navy accessories. The happy couple are residing in Harvey Moyer formerly of Dickson's Hill, and now of Miami, Florida.

J. A. Clarke, R. R. 4, Stouffville and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Yakeley, Harold Avenue, has completed a course in Meteorology at Ottawa, and accepted a position at Malton.

Late Ida Elson

A good neighbor

STOUFFVILLE - Floral tributes, as a token of affection for the late Ida May Elson, Baker Avenue, Stouffville, were beautiful. But none would have given her more personal satisfaction than the one containing the names of boys and girls in the area where she lived - children she had cared for on many occasions, while their parents were away for a few hours or an evening.

The late Ida Elson was that kind of person - a good friend and neighbor. She passed away suddenly, Saturday evening, in York County Hospital, Newmarket.

Born on the 9th concession of Whitchurch, north of Churchill, the daughter of Irwin and Emily Gray, she lived for many years near Lincolnville, before moving to Stouffville. She was identified with the Stouffville United Church and a member of the Friendship Club, attending their last meeting, only two days before her death.

The only surviving family relative is a nephew Gary Gray of Toronto.

Rev. Douglas Davis, a close friend of the deceased, conducted the service, Tuesday, from the O'Neill Funeral Home, assisted by Rev. Jas. Carder. Interment was in the Stouffville Cemetery. Pallbearers were: Earl Cook, Douglas Ramer, Morley Haynes, Walter Atkinson, Edward Herbert and Bert Clarkson.

Birthday party
Tina Beattie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Beattie, formerly of Stouffville and now of Bloomington celebrated her 11th birthday, Saturday. To mark the occasion, she hosted a party, attended by many of her classmates and school friends.

In hospital
Mr. Harold Morden, Pine Street, is a patient in Scarborough Centenary Hospital. His recovery from a recent heart attack has been encouraging and he hopes to be home for Christmas.

84th birthday
Congratulations to Mr. Leslie Rowe, Hawthorne Avenue, on the occasion of his 84th birthday, Dec. 22.

Ada Jane Bradley
Sympathy is expressed to Mrs. Harry Holden, Church Street, in the passing of her mother, Mrs. Ada Jane Bradley, in Brierbush Hospital, Stouffville. The service was held from the O'Neill Funeral Home, Monday with interment, Prince Albert Cemetery.

The Tribune is pleased to receive a color photograph of Mr. Dawson Davis, formerly of Stouffville and his son, Charles, now living in Victoria, British Columbia. Mr. Davis Sr. is now 79 years old and enjoys very good health.

Debbie, Cheryl and Shelley, were participants in the Claremont Community Christmas Show, Saturday afternoon.

Rodney Bond, Ninth Line North, with his three daughters.
