Markham's 'Merry Men' bring cheer to Green Gables residents

The 'Merry Men of Markham' visited Green Gables Manor at Bloomington, Friday and presented a two hour program of barbershop harmony and Christmas carols.

While there, they set up and decorated two Christmas trees. The gesture was much appreciated by the residents and managers, Ann and Lou Levine. -Cadieux Studio.

Among individual performers, I thought Mark and Debbie Chamberlain were excellent. The Dylan-style songs of Robert Danielis also appealed to me, but maybe that "it shouldn't take a disaster right in our own town to get people working together".

'Nautical Mile' also turned in a creditable performance, especially with their 'Black Magic Woman'. I was amused by their rendition of 'Hound Dog', which came out as far harder rock than Elvis ever laid down. All in all, the crowd seemed well-pleased. Organizers and performers are to be congratulated. Perhaps one measure of their success is the money raised for the Fire Fund - $459.72.

Partnership
 MARKHAM The purchase of Watts, Electric and Plumbing of Markham has been completed through a partnership arrangement, and not solely by the former manager, as reported in The Tribune last week. The owners are Compton, Rodriguez, Jan Koogje and John Wright. The firm name has been changed to Comtech Electric Plumbing and Heating. The location is unchanged at 106 Main Street North.

Parkview Home Old carols ever new

STOUFFVILLE Residents and Staff of Parkview would like to thank their many friends for expressions of goodwill during this Christmas season. The mail bag is heavy and its contents are much appreciated.

The residents are enjoying the carol singing as they meet daily in the auditorium. Miss Lily Bailey with her violin and Mrs. Francis Rattee on piano are providing musical accompaniment.

On Thursday evening, a cantata under the leadership of Mrs. Dick, Ohlman, Stouffville, at the Missionary Church was enjoyed by everyone.

Rev. Douglas Davis and Mrs. Davis were with us for the evening worship service on Sunday, Dec. 19. Rev. Davis' message was much appreciated.

The Parkview Staff held a get-acquainted Christmas party on the evening of Dec. 13. A gift exchange and lunch as well as the fellowship was enjoyed. A pleasant surprise was the arrival of Santa Claus. Recent visitors with Parkview residents include: Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Stouffer with Mrs. Elmina Wiancko; Mrs. Eileen McIntosh with Mrs. Ethel Swindells; Mabel and Louie Hoover with Miss Gussie Hoover; Mr. and Mrs. P. Penchoff of Toronto with Mrs. Ada Cooper; Mrs. Lorne Wideman with Mrs. Laura Hilliard; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Stimers with Mr. Lew Brown; Mrs. Jean Beare of Markham with Mrs. Nancy Hilts; Mr. Claude Osborne with Mrs. Ellen Osborne; Miss D.

Willmot of Toronto with Miss Norma Wade; Mary Vogl and Edna Renwick with Mrs. Orinda Hartnett; David and Brenda Slack of Stouffville with Mr. David Crozier. These are only a few of the more than one hundred visitors who called during the week.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Kathleen Kenney and Mrs. Florence Hammond are in Toronto Hospitals. We wish them a speedy recovery.

We wish all of our readers a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Village green

STOUFFVILLE Every cloud has a silver lining. At a meeting of Whitechurch-Stouffville Council, Dec. 14, Mayor Ken Laushway read a letter received from a Mrs. Eleanor Watts of Burlington, Ont. In it, the lady suggested that the recent fire in the Ratcliff-Wilkes Block on Main Street would now provide the Town with an opportunity to turn the entire area into a 'village green'. She went on to recommend the types of flowers and shrubs that could be used to beautify the park-like property. The correspondence was filed without comment from other members.
