Gormley Exchange

Granted extended telephone service

By Evelyn Milsted GORMLEY Residents in the Gormley Exchange (887), are now utilizing the free-call service to Don Mills, Willowdale and parts of Toronto, instituted by Bell, Dec. 19.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs.

John Savelli and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Savelli in the passing of their father, Mr. Salvatore (Sam) Spiri in the Joseph Brant Memorial Hospital at Burlington, Friday, in his 85th year. The service was held Monday afternoon from the Dixon Funeral Home, Markham. Mr. Spiri lived here with his daughters for some time.

Mrs. Gordon Dodd is home following surgery in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.

Mrs. Thayer Hepburn, for many years a Gormley resident, suffered a serious fall recently and is a patient in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Barrie.

Rev. and Mrs. Jacob Barva of Nigeria, Africa, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Doner and family.

Gormley Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. A.G. Noble, Dec. 15. Roll Call was a stamped Christmas card to be sent to shut-ins or friends of the community. The program was presented by Mrs. C. Smith of Lake Wilcox who displayed useful gifts made by the Cancer Society at Lake Wilcox for cancer patients in their area.

Mr. Aymer Gray, for many years a Gormley resident, suffered a heart attack, Saturday. He is a patient in the Intensive Care ward at York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.

Late Archie Forfar
Church filled for memorial

By Lee Wong BALLANTRAE The auditorium of Churchill Church was filled to capacity, Sunday afternoon, to honor the memory of the late Archie Forfar, victim of a drowning accident near Andros Island in The Bahamas. No family in the community is better known. Bruce Forfar, a brother, left immediately on learning of the tragedy. He was expected home, Monday.

Many groups in the community enjoyed Christmas parties this week. The Ballantrae Guide and Brownie packs held their gathering on Dec. 16. The Guides sang carols from other lands under the direction of Mrs. Eve Jones.

The Brownies celebrated a Mexican Christmas, complete with a pinata filled with candies, peanuts and trinkets. The girls wore Mexican costumes, and enacted the Christmas story. The Brownies sent gifts to a Brownie pack in Bonfield, Ontario. The following girls flew up to Guides: Darlene Robertson, Donna Nunn, Kim berly Davies and Corinne Healy will also Leanne Lippett be going to Guides.
