

Events that made top news stories in year 1971

One million dollar fire destroys landmark block in Stouffville; sixteen persons made homeless.

History was made, June 28, with the inauguration of Stouffville to Toronto C.N.R. rail commuter service.

Residents protest use of South Musselman's Lake Rd. by gravel trucks. Load and speed limit bylaws approved by Council.

Eighteen sheep destroyed by dogs on farm of Harvey Brown, Hwy. 48 at 18th Avenue, Markham. Loss estimated at $2,000.

Much-publicized 'Century City' project scrapped by Province. Many properties show signs of deterioration.

Start is made on third medium-rise apartment located on Albert Street South. Completion date set for April, 1972.

Board of Education approves sale of Lemonville School for $19,000. To be re-modelled for Community Centre.

Arthur Starr, Education chairman.

Bert Paisley, Pres., Markham Fair

Mrs. Della Moore, Teacher honored.

Joe Tran, Noted plowman passes

Ross Kennedy, formerly of R. R. 2, Markham, and now of Little Britain, Ontario tractor plow champion at International Match.