Candlelight ceremony for pretty Gormley bride

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koopman following their marriage, Aug. 13, 1971 in Gormley Missionary Church. Mrs. Koopman is the former Barbara Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harvey, R.R.1, Gormley.

GORMLEY - Gormley Missionary Church was the scene of a pretty evening wedding, Aug. 13, 1971, when Barbara Harvey and Robert Koopman were united in marriage. Candelabras and baskets of shrimp gladioli graced the altar for the ceremony performed at 7 p.m. by Rev. C. E. Hunking of Kitchener. Mrs. Hans Koopman of Stouffville was the organist.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harvey, R.R.1 Gormley are the parents of the bride, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Koopman, R. R. 3, Stouffville.

Barbara, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white crystal peau gown trimmed with Guipure lace and seed pearls, and long flowing train edged with lace. Her flowers were white sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Karen Barker of Toronto was maid of honor. She was attractive in a shrimp chiffon gown with matching flowered top, white picture hat and shrimp chiffon tie. She carried a white basket of daisies.

Bonnie and Brenda Harvey of Gormley were the pretty bridesmaids. Bonnie wore green and Brenda yellow chiffon gowns, also with matching flowered tops, picture hats and chiffon ties; the same as their dresses. They carried yellow baskets of daisies.

Lambert Yake of Unionville was the groomsman. The ushers were Dean Harvey and Hans Koopman. Kirk Harvey was the ringbearer.

The books, when audited, will be placed in the Town vault along with the minutes maintained by the secretary, Mrs. Bea Jennings.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lickorish, Main Street, New Year's Day, were - Mrs. Parker, her son Robert and his lady friend, Miss Karen Brown of Mimico and Mrs. Annie Betz, a resident of the Sr. Citizens' Apartment, Stouffville.

The reception was held at the Summit Golf and Country Club, Richmond Hill. The bride's mother received in a pink brocaded sheer dress with sheer coat and pink carnation corsage. The groom's mother assisted in blue crepe with white and red carnation corsage.

Some lucky ticket holder will win, not one but two Arctic Cat snowmobiles in a draw, Jan. 15 at the Stouffville Arena. The evening, in the form of a Skating Party, is sponsored by the Stouffville Figure Skating Club. Tickets, at $1, are still available from any member of the Club executive.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lickorish, Main Street, spent the Christmas weekend with their daughter, Betty, at Mimico.
