STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Chevy's since '17
Henry Slack, Main Street East, recently received delivery of a new 1972 model Chevrolet, his thirteenth, purchased through salesman Doug Ward at Conlin Motors, Markham. Mr. Slack is a staunch Chevy man, having driven one since 1917. He still holds the original ownership for his 1917 Chev, acquired from Beer Bros., in Port Perry, 55 years ago.

Graduate

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Vanstone of Oyen, Alberta, have returned home after spending holidays with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hill and Mrs. Jessie Hill.

Colored slides
Mr. Eugene Lemon will show pictures of local interest at the Jan. 17 meeting of the Stouffville Horticultural Society in the lower auditorium of St. James Presbyterian Church. The time is 8 p.m.

Sold 830 trees
The Lions Club Christmas tree sales in December, realized a profit of close to $1,000. Bill Snow and Colin Barrett headed up the committee. There were 830 trees sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Stouffer and Joanne Albert Street North, entertained Miss Eva Hoover, O'Brien Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Boyd and Mr. Charlie Stouffer of Newmarket during the recent holiday period.

Recent holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merv Bunker, Altona, were Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis, Larry and Brian of Weston; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Williams, Stouffville; and Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Goudie, Whitby.

Mr. Wayne Hornsby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hornsby of Toronto, and formerly of Stouffville, graduated recently with a B.A. degree in Sociology from York University. Mr. Hornsby is teaching music on the staff of Woodfield Public School.

'Big Brothers'
Information concerning the 'Big Brother' movement, has attracted much interest in the Whitchurch-Stouffville area. Gentlemen wishing to offer assistance in this very worthwhile program, should contact Glenn Walterhouse, Box 34, Aurora.

St. James W.M.S.
The monthly meeting of St. James Presbyterian Church, W.M.S., was held Jan. 6 at the home of Margery Clark O'Brien Avenue. The study period was led by Mrs. A.G. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Lemon, Rupert Avenue, entertained their granddaughters, Sonya and Leslie Ford of Richmond Hill for a holiday recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burkholder, Main Street West, were recent holiday visitors at the home of her brother, Mr. Don Raymer and family, near Bright.

Mrs. Lloyd Moyer, Dorothy and Mildred, Church Street, were recent holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heise, Gormley.

Mrs. Russell Raymer, Willowdale and Mrs. Fred Pugh, Tenth Line North, enjoyed dinner Monday, with Mrs. Lloyd Moyer, Church St., Stouffville.

Wayne and Gail Newmarch, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Newmarch, Main St., East, returned recently from a 10-day ski trip in Austria.

Cars collide
A two-car collision on the Don Mills Road at the Bogartown cut-off, Thursday night, injured two persons and damaged both vehicles. Admitted to York County Hospital and later released was Mrs. Joe Murray Sr., of Stouffville, a passenger in a south-bound auto driven by her son-in-law, Clarence Fockler of Ringwood. Mrs. Fockler was less seriously hurt. The family were on their way home after visiting with Mr. Murray, a hospital patient in Newmarket. According to reports, Mr. Fockler was unsuccessful in attempting to avoid an oncoming auto that had spun out of control.

Breaks arm
The many friends of Mrs. Christie Armstrong, Albert Street North, were sorry to learn of her recent fall near her home. She suffered a broken arm. Mrs. Armstrong is presently a patient in Brierbush Hospital.

Mr. David Downey of the R.C.M.P., stationed in British Columbia, enjoyed a few days' vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Downey, Ringwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Jones and family, Stouffville, spent New Year's Eve with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carter and family, Altona.

Open House
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Latcham, known to many in the area, will celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary, Jan. 22. They will welcome friends and relatives at an 'open house', from 2 to 5 p.m., in the Christian Education Centre of Knox United Church, Midland Avenue, Agincourt.

In hospital
Stan Newmarch, Main Street, East, Stouffville, is a patient in the Toronto Orthopaedic and Arthritic Hospital, Wellesley Street. He expects to be confined there, three more weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Yakeley, Stouffville; Mrs. Walter Vague, Mrs. Ed Brownsberger and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steckley of Ringwood, attended the funeral service for Rev. H.H. Kent of Emmanuel Christian Church, Toronto, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nigh and family, Charles Street, were pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Norman Woodcock of Oshawa, Saturday evening. On Friday, Mrs. Minnie Davidson and Mrs. Maude Law, both residents of Parkview Home, enjoyed dinner with them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, following their wedding, Aug. 14, 1971, in St. Andrew's United Church, Markham. The bride is the former Janet Varley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Varley of Weston and formerly of Gormley.

Candlelight ceremony

MARKHAM - A pretty candlelight wedding was performed in St. Andrew's United Church, Markham, August 14, 1971 when Janet Varley became the bride of John Wilson of Thornhill.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Varley of Weston, formerly of Gormley. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson, Don Mills and originally of Markham.

Baskets of gladioli and stephanotis and candles graced the altar for the ceremony performed at 4 o'clock by Rev. Beaton.

Mrs. Peggy Clark of Markham was the organist. George Armstrong was the soloist with accompaniment on his guitar. Janet, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a silk organza gown, empire style waistline with A-line skirt, lace appliques, sheer yolk, long fitted sleeves and train. She wore a shoulder length veil and carried a cascade of carnations, white dotted with mauve and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were Marion and Kitty Varley, both sisters-in-law of Janet; Bonnie Wilson, the groom's sister and Pat Tomney. They were attractive in gowns with a peacock blue bodice and blue and mauve print skirt. They carried mauve parasols decorated with carnations and hyacinths at the handle and the top. David Wilson was groomsmen for his brother. The ushers were Roger Varley, brother of the bride; Carmen Foti and Joe Grant. They wore white tuxedos with black Spanish braid, mauve shirts and black butterfly bow ties.

Colin Varley was ringbearer. The reception was held in the Markham District Veterans' Hall. Mrs. Varley received wearing a draped chiffon moss green dress with lime green front panel, jewelled belt and orchid corsage. Mrs. Wilson assisted in a mauve polyester satin dress, empire waistline and yellow rose corsage.

For travelling to the Thousand Islands, Ottawa and Montreal the bride chose white lace hot pants with purple accessories and an orchid corsage. The happy couple are residing in Thornhill.

The bride's nephew, Colin Varley was ringbearer.

The happy couple are residing in Thornhill.

Baptismal ceremony

Friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Nolan, Duchess St., Thursday evening, for the christening of their grandson, John Stefan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rau, London England. The rites of baptism were administered by Rev. Douglas Davis. Among those attending were two great grandmothers, Mrs. G.L. Williamson, Markham and Mrs. A.V. Nolan, Rupert Ave., and a great, great aunt, Miss Elizabeth Williamson of Toronto. Miss Williamson has passed her ninetieth birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Rau and son have been with her parents enjoying the year-end vacation period.
