Institute President, D.L. Makale has already appointed two leading officials to look into the case.

While conceding that the Institute has "no legal ability to intervene", Mr. Makale points out that members cannot accept a position with any. municipality, "while the just claim of another Planner, previously employed, remains unsatisfied". He added, that it was his feeling, that not giving valid reasons for 'dismissal', could constitute an unsatisfied just claim. Examining the affair will be Dr. G.A. Carrothers, Professor of Environmental Studies and Professor R.S. Lang, both on the York.
