Govt. grant

GREENWOOD Greenwood's new Arena is fast becoming a reality.

Norm Cafik, MP for Ontario Riding, has announced a federal government grant under the Local Incentives Program for "sports facilities in the Greenwood area". The $33,580 will be applied towards the cost of the rink.

Another grant of $14,000 has been awarded to Reach Township, and a third in the amount of $14,455 will be used to benefit the Georgina Island Band in Lake Simcoe.

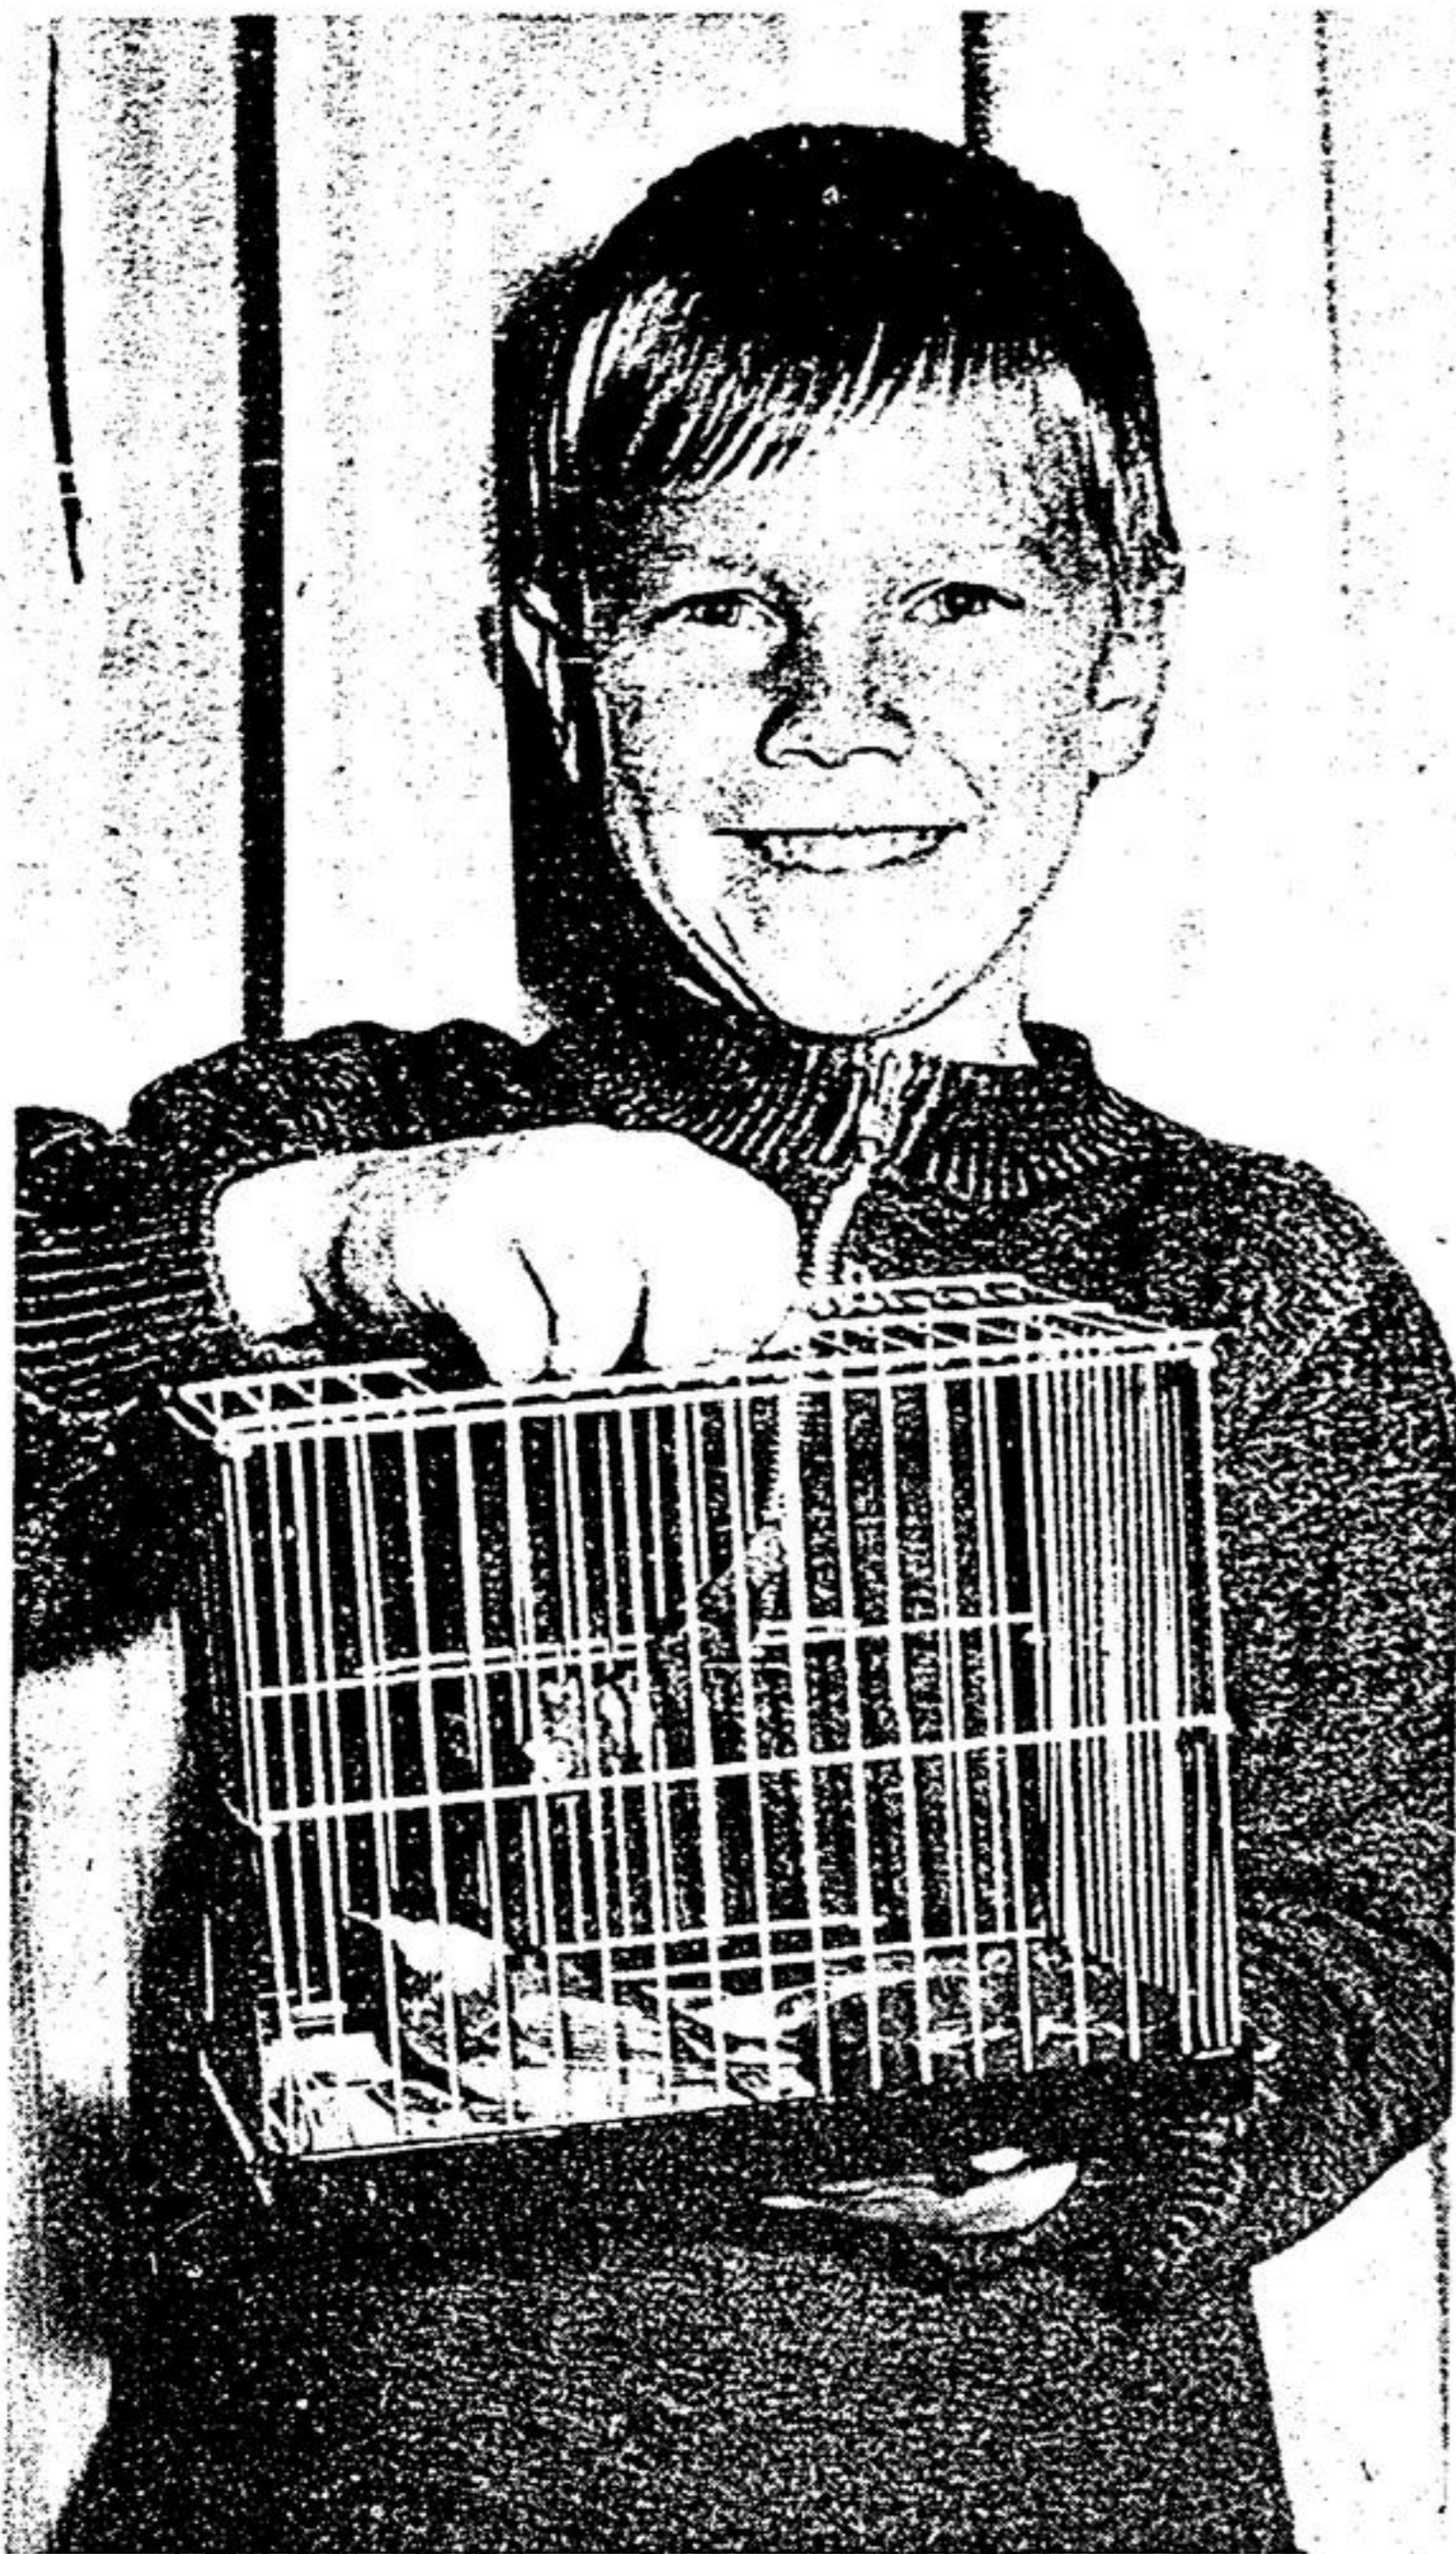

Grants in Ontario Riding have so far totalled over $70,000, according to Mr. Cafik.

Assaulted hitch-hiker

CLAREMONT Three Claremont area youths were recently convicted of assault in Provincial Court, Whitby.

John Stapleton, 21, Gary McDougall, 23 and Douglas McDougall, 17, appeared for sentence before Judge H.W. Jermyn. The charges arose from an alleged attack on a hitch-hiker.

The two older men were each jailed 30 days. Douglas McDougall was fined $50 or 20 days and placed on probation for 10 months. He was on

SHUR-GAIN DAIRY SILASUPPLEMENT.

The feed that is helping to change the outlook of the countryside.

Count the number of silos in your community that were not there ten or five years ago. They symbolize the growing popularity of corn as the major source of feed in dairy operations.

Shur-Gain were leaders in this trend by developing Silasupplement, to supplement silage with the additional nutrients needed for optimum milk production and body weight maintenance.

Let us tell you more about Shur-Gain Silasupplement, the feed that has changed the outlook for dairymen and the look of your countryside.
