STOUFFVILLE SCENE What's going on

Store damaged
The entrance to the Stouffville Sound and Music Store, Main and Mill Streets, was damaged, Monday morning, when a car owned by Jack Sanders, Park Drive North, moved from its parking spot and crashed into the glass door. Mr. Sanders was not in the vehicle at the time. Damage was estimated at about $200.

Appointment
Gordon C. Ness, Barrister and Solicitor, associated with the Stouffville law firm of Button & Armstrong since March 1, 1968, has been admitted to partnership effective January 1, 1972. The partnership will continue to practice law under the name of Button, Armstrong & Ness.

Music Festival
The 12th annual Music Festival, sponsored by the Newmarket Lions Club, will be held from May 1 to 5. The closing date for entries is Jan. 31. They should be submitted to C.N. Williams, 352 Botsford St., Newmarket, Ont. Piano entry forms should be sent to Mrs. R.E. Atkinson, 208 Church St., Newmarket. Each year, there are several participants from the Whitchurch-Stouffville and Markham areas.

Fuzzy faces
Fuzzy faces are sprouting all over in the Town of Uxbridge. Male residents have responded admirably to the Beard-Growing Contest in connection with the municipality's 100th anniversary of incorporation. Right now, most of the men have entered the 'prickly stage' of endowment, a fact that's not fondly appreciated by their wives and girl friends.

Ladies' Club
The Ringwood Ladies' Club held their first euchre of 1972, at the home of Jean Foley, Jan. 10. Prize-winners were: Eleanor Wood, 1st; Irene Reid, 2nd and Grace Murray, 3rd. The Oscar winner was Barb Fockler.

It's magic
Is the hand faster than the eye? Ask members of Uxbridge Twp. Council. They were treated to some feats of magic, as performed by Stouffville's Art Latham, during a brief pause in a meeting, Jan. 11. One of his tricks, included the swallowing (not really) of a coin, only to nonchalantly pick it out of his pant cuff. "That's what I call stretching a dollar", joked councillor Clark Muirhead.

Winter holiday
Mr. and Mrs. R.F. 'Tommy' Farr, Stouffer St., are enjoying a 2-week winter holiday in Grenada, West Indies.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillaird DeGeer, formerly of the Senior Citizens' Apartment, Elm Road, have taken up residence in Parkview Home.

Town Library Art exhibits

By Doris Lapp, Librarian.
STOUFFVILLE - Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library invites you to enjoy its art displays, during the month of January. In the adult section, Mrs. D.M. Vanstone, R.R.4, Stouffville, has portraits and landscapes in oil. Mrs. Vanstone, a graduate of the Ontario College of Art, teaches painting in her home. Several of her students have shown their work in the library.

In the children's section, the pupils of Ballantrae Public School are showing a selection of their outstanding art work. While in the library, you might like to borrow or examine the books on the technique and history of painting. We especially recommend 'Painting in Canada', by J. Russell Harper.

Boy injured
Nine year old Markus Dams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wolfgang Dams, Main Street, was injured Friday afternoon, in an accident near the intersection of Albert and Second Streets. He was treated by Dr. Douglas Brodie and admitted to Scarborough Centenary Hospital for x-rays and observation. He suffered concussion, but no bones were broken. Markus, a Grade 4 pupil at St. Mark's School, Stouffville, was delivering papers on his route at the time. Police questioned the truck driver involved, but laid no charges.

90th birthday
Mr. Harry Wellman, well-known former Glasgow resident and now living at Fairview Lodge, Whitby, will mark his 90th birthday, Jan. 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Timbers, Main Street, enjoyed a visit from their daughter and son-in-law, on the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Clarke and family, Vineland.

Mrs. Ruth Sheppard of Bloomington, is home from hospital, convalescing from injuries received in an auto accident, west of Ringwood, Jan. 7. She suffered a broken knee cap and several fractured ribs.

Story-time
This Saturday at 2.30 p.m., is story-time for pre-schoolers in the lower auditorium of Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library. Mrs. Jean Harrott, Hawthorne Avenue is the guest story-teller.

Centennial Ceremony
The year 1972 marks the 100th anniversary for Simpsons and to mark the occasion, birthday celebrations have been held at all store locations. The event was especially significant for Mr. and Mrs. Len Wilkes, Rupert Avenue, Stouffville. At Simpsons-Yorkdale, their pretty granddaughter, 5 year old Shery Lee Wilkes, held the gold scissors for the ribbon-cutting ceremony, Jan. 6. Shery Lee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Wilkes. Brian is a department manager at Simpsons in Yorkdale.

The many friends of Mrs. Cliff Aiken, Rupert Avenue, will be pleased to know she is now home, following surgery in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.

Largest crowd
The largest hockey crowd of the season is expected... Thursday (tonight), when the Stouffville - Wexford Raiders' host league-leading Richmond Hill at 8.00 p.m.

Bride's married sisters sing at ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Preston, following their marriage, August 14, 1971 in Full Gospel Tabernacle, Leamington, Ont.

STOUFFVILLE - A pretty wedding was held in Full Gospel Tabernacle, Leamington, August 14, 1971, when Keith Preston, R.R. 4 Stouffville, took as his bride, Sharon Greene. Sharon is the daughter of Mervin and Marguerite Greene, R.R. 4, Leamington and Keith is the son of Burn and Anna Preston, R.R. 4, Stouffville.

Standards of multicolor gladioli, mums and carnations and candelabras graced the altar for the ceremony performed at 2.30 p.m. by Rev. Laurie Price assisted by Rev. C.H. Bronsdon.

Mrs. Carolynne Greene, sister-in-law of the bride was organist for the occasion and accompanied the soloist Dennis Coffell who sang 'The Lord's Prayer' and 'Dedication' and 'Savior Like A Shepherd Lead Them'.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an A-line peau de soie and lace gown with a full train flowing from her headpiece of a cluster of leaves and petals. She carried a cascade of a single orchid stephanotis and ivy.

Attending Sharon were Mrs. Lonna Robinson, Ridgeway, Mrs. Peggy Drevitt, Leamington and Mrs. Connie MacVicar of Goderich, all sisters of the bride. They sang 'The Man On The Middle Cross' during the ceremony. Also attending was Miss Doris Preston of Stouffville, sister of the groom. They were all attractive in shades of mauve chiffon over taffeta featuring an empire waistline and long full sleeves. They carried colonial baskets of white shasta mums with ivy. Ivan Preston of Hamilton was groomsmen for his brother. The ushers were Ron MacDonald, Dan Greene and Calvin King.

Mrs. Greene received the guests wearing a purple crepe and lace dress with white accessories. The happy couple are residing in Peterborough.

Hi Folks! Remember me "The Fighting Scot"
I gave Stouffville its First Paint & Wallpaper Store then its First Pet Store. Now I give you a FIRST DISCOUNT WALLPAPER STORE.
The spies are coming in now, spying on me... Why? Because I stated I would sell and apply wallpaper to your walls for less than some charge for the wallpaper alone.
For example: Look at this wallpaper now in my store, it sells in other stores REG. $2.35 SINGLE ROLL. I will apply same paper to your walls... LABOUR & WALLPAPER $1.89 SINGLE ROLL.
Let's see if they can beat that!
NOW DON'T GET CONFUSED, THERE IS ONLY ONE 'FIGHTING SCOT' IN THIS BUSINESS AT THE MOMENT...
Come in and Tom Lang of The 'LANG' Service see me soon.
888-1928 11 Main St. East, 640-2709
(Next door to the Stouffville Library)
Thank you for helping me to keep the spies on their toes.
