

Centennial

SCARBORO - School Section No. 3, Scarboro (C. H. Berner Public School), Finch Avenue and Neilson Road, is planning a colorful program and celebration, June 17, on the occasion of its 100th birthday.

Preceding the main event, will be a series of euvres, Jan. 24, Feb. 28 and March 27.

Local historian, Jean Little, is compiling a booklet on the history of the School Section. Items of interest, also pictures will be appreciated.

Former pupils, teachers and residents are asked to spread the word, in order that no one will be missed.

Hockey pointers from a pro

Harry Watson of Markham, a former hockey pro with Detroit and Toronto, spoke to a group of boys in the lower auditorium of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library, Saturday afternoon. He provided the lads with much valuable information and answered their questions freely. Here, he shows the difference between a curved and straight-blade stick, to Novice League player, Billy Lee, Fairview Avenue.

Tragic auto accident

By Mrs. Wm. Sandie VIC. SQUARE - This community was shocked and saddened, Jan. 14 when news was received of the death of Robert James Reaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Reaman (Ruth Wellman). The deceased, only 22, was killed in a car crash near Sudbury. Surviving, besides his parents, are two sisters, Jean and Marjorie.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Mikkelsen and family have returned from a holiday in Denmark. Sunday School teachers and officers will meet Jan. 20 at the home of Mrs. Norman Tyndall. The time is 8 p.m.

The annual congregational meeting of Victoria Square United Church, will be held in the lower auditorium, Jan. 27 at 8 p.m. All reports are to be in the hands of Mrs. John McCague by Jan. 20.

The Women's Institute met, Jan. 11 at the home of Mrs. Robt. Britnell. Special music was presented by Mrs. Merrick of Richmond Hill and Mrs. Jim Barker, Victoria Square. Mrs. Stewart Rumble, the guest speaker, centred her remarks around the type of subjects offered at Don Head Secondary School.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nichols recently entertained Mrs. Mary Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Buchanan, Jamie and Valerie and Vincent Willis on the occasion of Jamie's fifth birthday.

Silver anniversary

ATHA - Saturday, Jan. 15 was a happy occasion for Mr. and Mrs. Alec Bell, R.R.3, Claremont, when they celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. A wine and cheese party was held at the Atha Community Centre, with seventy guests attending. Gracing the front table was a large white anniversary cake with red roses and decorating the hall were white and silver bells.

Many beautiful and unusual gifts were received, one of the most original being a large white plaque mounted with twenty-five silver dollars, forming the number 25, from Lloyd and Margaret Britton. Flowers for the evening were provided by Tim Clark's Flowers, Markham. The evening's official hostess was Beverley Bell who proposed the toast and received at the door. Guests were present from Stouffville, Markham, Newmarket, Whitby, Toronto, Oshawa and Aurora.

Home from hospital

By Evelyn Milsted GORMLEY - Mrs. Fred Doust is now home from York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill. Mrs. Melvin Henderson and Mr. John Brash have been patients there, with Mr. Brash suffering from pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Doner and family enjoyed dinner recently, with Mr. and Mrs. Doug Gee and family.

Mr. Lambert Stouffer of Stouffville will show slides on the Conference on Biblical Prophecy, at 7.30 p.m., Jan. 23 in the Missionary Church. Gormley Women's Institute will meet Jan. 26 at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith. A film, related to Princess Margaret Hospital, entitled, 'Man in Room 177' will be shown. The program is in charge of Mrs. John Gamble.
