Mr. and Mrs. Derek Holden, following their wedding, Aug. 21, 1971, in Baker Hill Baptist Church. The bride is the former Betty-Anne Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simpson, R.R.3, Stouffville.

Married in Baker Hill Baptist Church

STOUFFVILLE Baker Hill Baptist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding, August 21, 1971, when Betty-Anne Simpson became the bride of Derek (Jody) Holden.

Baskets of gladioli snapdragons and asters decorated the church for the occasion. Rev. Norman Rowan performed the 3 o'clock ceremony. Mrs. Alma Oldham, R.R.2 Stouffville was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, Betty-Anne was lovely in a floorlength gown with empire waist, nylon lace bodice, train and lantern sleeves with suede crepe skirt. She carried a lavender cattleya orchid surrounded with miniature white carnations.

Doreen Holden, Peterboro; Karen McClure, Keswick and Lynn Simpson, R.R.3, Stouffville attended the bride. They were attractive in floorlength crepe gowns with old-fashioned stand up collar and short puffy sleeves with each in a different pastel color of yellow, mauve and green. They carried nosegays of daisies, chrysanthemums and roses.

Murray Holden of Peterboro was the best man. The groom and his attendants wore tuxedos with white dinner jackets with black Spanish braid. The reception was held in the Whitchurch Centennial Centre. Mrs. Simpson received in a tangerine colored dress accented with lace bodice and sleeves with matching accessories and yellow rose corsage. Mrs. Holden assisted in a pink multi-colored sheer dress with sleeveless navy coat, white accessories and a pink sweetheart rose corsage.

For travelling around the Great Lakes, the bride chose an off-white pant-suit with brown accessories.

The happy couple are residing on Albert Street in Stouffville.
