

A 'golden' day

CLAREMONT - It doesn't take much of an excuse to get the folks in Claremont together.

For Claremont is that kind of community.

However, when the occasion is a Golden Wedding Anniversary, it's time for a real celebration.

So it was, Saturday, in the lower auditorium of the Claremont United Church. The guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Reynolds, better known to a wide circle of friends as Cliff and Laura.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds were married Feb. 18, 1922, at Peterborough. But their coming to Claremont to live was like returning 'home' for Laura. For she was born here, where Mrs. Olive Vine now resides. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Levi Linton. Cliff was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reynolds of Campbellford.

Cliff and Laura have been extremely active in the village, with Mrs. Reynolds, in her own words, 'taking part in just about everything going'.

Present at the reception, Saturday, were their two sons, Douglas of R.R.5, Bowmanville and Jim of Agincourt. They have seven grandchildren.

Mr. Reynolds has four sisters, Mrs. Olga Yeaman, Mrs. Thelma Woodburn and Isobel, all of Toronto and Mrs. Evelyn Evans, Port Hope. Mrs. Reynolds has two sisters, Mrs. Doris Hopkins and Mrs. Margaret Baker, of Claremont, and two Eleven year old Randy Ingram and his brother George, enjoyed excellent success at the Uxbridge snowmobile races. Sunday, George scored a 1st and Randy, a second. It was the first official race meet for both boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Redshaw and family and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Redshaw and family, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Redshaw, Port Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rennie; Mr. and Mrs. B. Budd and Mrs. Ken Torrance, attended a wedding in Toronto, Saturday. Because of weather and road conditions, they were forced to remain for the weekend, arriving home, Monday.
