STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Wins $700
Mrs. Jean Beach, mail carrier on Stouffville, R. R. 2, was the winner of $700 recently at the Uxbridge Legion bingo.

Wendy West

Rosemary St. John

Breaks wrist
Mrs. Dorothy Daniels, formerly of Stouffville and now living in Markham, suffered a broken wrist when the car, in which she was a passenger, was involved in a collision with another vehicle.

Singers entertain

Country and Western music stars, Wendy West and Rosemary St. John, begin a three-week engagement at the Sherwood Park Restaurant and Tavern, Markham, March 6 through March 25.

Man's world?
There was a time when fishing, particularly through a hole in the ice, was considered a real man sport. Not any more. Recently, Mrs. Bill Kirton of Mt. Albert hauled in a 36 inch Lake Trout near Jackson's Point. The big beauty tipped the scales at 19½ pounds. It was Mrs. Kirton's first time out, and certainly not her last.

Easter Seal appeal $1,400
STOUFFVILLE - The 1972 target figure in the Lions - sponsored Easter Seal campaign has been set at $1,400.

Important date
Feb. 24 is an important date for Mr. and Mrs. Wolfgang Dams, Main St., Stouffville. On this day, a son and a daughter were born. Just a week ago, Feb. 24, 1972, their second grandchild arrived, a baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Logan of Oshawa. The family is now looking ahead with great expectations to Feb. 24, 1973.

The committee chairman is Colin Barrett, Elm Road. The campaign opens March 2 and runs through April 2. All proceeds go to help physically handicapped children, with half the receipts used locally.

Winter Carnival
Thursday (today) is Winter Carnival time at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. Snow shoe racing, ski races and the judging of snow sculpturing as well as other outdoor events, will begin at 2 p.m.

Riders in the Bikeathon, May 6, may designate the Society as recipients of funds.

Local veterinarian
Dr. A. T. O'Connor, is a patient in York County Hospital, Newmarket.

Mrs. Helena Merk, 77, of Port Perry, passed away, Feb. 22 at Brierbush Hospital, Stouffville. She is survived by one son, Guenther and three grandchildren.

To Hawaii
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hudson, Baker Avenue, are enjoying a one-week holiday in Hawaii.

Lucky winners
The management of Stouffville I.G.A. announce four local winners in the current Lucky Puck Contest. They include - Ken Wagg, Orchard Park Blvd., Stouffville, $100; John Kegel, R.R.1, Goodwood, $105; Mrs. John Burke, Stouffville, R.R.4, $115 and Ronald Savage, Stouffville, R.R.2, $100.

Married 50 years
Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Bunker, Mongolia, will celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary, Saturday, March 4. A gathering of neighbors, friends, and relatives will be held in the Stouffville Masonic Hall from 7 to 10 p.m.

Fractures hand
Kevin Acton, Burkholder St., Stouffville, suffered a fractured left hand in the final Juvenile hockey game of the season. It was at first feared that surgery might be required, but the knitting process now seems satisfactory.

Lottie and Bert Nicholls, formerly of Winlane Drive, Stouffville, have purchased the Alex Nicol property on 19th Avenue at Almira. Lottie is a bookkeeper with Stouffville Trailer Ltd., Dickson's Hill. Bert is with the York County Board of Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert David Cargill, following their marriage in St. Francis de Sales Church, Pickering, August 21, 1971.

Attractive setting

PICKERING
Patricia Anne Featherstone became the bride of Robert David Cargill in St. Francis de Sales Church, Pickering, August 21, 1971.

Mrs. John Cargill, R. 1 Pickering.

White gladioli, yellow mums and daisies formed a beautiful setting for the ceremony performed at 4 p.m. by Father Griffin.

The bride was lovely in a floorlength white shantung gown with inverted back pleat and rose bud trim. Her flowers were pink roses white mums, baby's breath and daisies.

Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Featherstone, 6 Pinoak Road, Pickering and Robert is the son of Mr. and Marian Featherstone was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Barbara Featherstone and Shirley Cargill of Pickering and Mrs. Marilyn Cargill of Stouffville. They were attractive in floorlength semi-fitted gowns of pale green organza over floral crepe with jewel neckline and short puffed sleeves. They carried baskets of baby's breath, pink carnations, daisies and white mums.

The reception followed at the Anandale Golf and Country Club.

For travelling to the 1000 Islands, the bride chose a turquoise blue pant suit.

The happy couple are residing in Pickering.

Summitview School

Successful science fair

STOUFFVILLE - Summitview held its annual Science Fair on February 24, 1972. Exhibits which included displays and experiments were as varied as the interests of the children who participated: rocks and minerals, steam power, beavers, divers and floating eggs, radios, stock cars, model aeroplanes, volcanoes, and Morse code keys. The top three exhibits were selected by Mr. L. Rickard of Bayview Secondary School. Karen Brown and Beth Wilson, Grade 6, came first with the beaver exhibit. Kathy Elliott and Dianne Leonard, grade 6, came second with their rock and mineral display and Randy Brown, grade 4, came third with a display showing the development and uses of steam power.

At Gravenhurst Peter Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Harris, Glad Park Avenue, has joined the staff of the Gravenhurst News.

Wrestling championships
Nine students of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School finished third in recent York County wrestling championships. Entries included - Peter Hamilton, Arthur Reesor, Marvin Reesor, Steve Reesor, Wayne Newmarch, Donald Revooy, Rick Barber, Steve Pope and Steve MacFarlane. Markham High School placed 1st and Bayview, second.
