Tribute to 'Swifty' Todd

'Black Hawks' of '62 re-united

UXBRIDGE - Remember the Uxbridge 'Black Hawks', O. H. A. Intermediate 'B' Champions of 1962? Most Uxbridge fans do.

They'll see them all again, Friday, March 10, in an exhibition match - a tribute to the memory of the late 'Swifty' Todd, team coach of that year. Their opponents will be the Goodwood 'North Stars', also a club coached by Gord Todd. Game time is 8 p.m.

The Uxbridge lineup from yesteryears will include - Fred Etcher, Bobby Tripp, Don Haynes, Bud Lehman, Joe Carpentier, Paul Tomlinson, Art Rennick, Bob Cherry, Vern Ferguson, Elmo Gibson, Bill Cornish and Dick Bertrand.

Team manager, Bruce Foote, is a chief organizer of the event. Participants will also include the Mayor of Uxbridge Town, Ray Newton and the Reeve of Uxbridge Township, Bob Nesbitt.

Admission is $1.00.

Basketball teams defeat Sutton

STOUFFVILLE Spartans completely clobbered the visitors in their division, 89 to 15. George Cunningham, Bruce Rodin, Randy Barber and Paul Rodin were top scorers in the win. The Senior game was taken by Sutton.

Quarter Finals

The Stouffville Intermediates and Seniors will now advance to the York North quarter finals, the intermediates going against Aurora and the seniors meeting King City.

This will be a two-game total point series.

Stouffville high school basketballers finished their regular schedule with a double win over Sutton high school. Both the Midgets and Intermediates won their games by wide margins while the Seniors dropped their contest.

The Stouffville Midget squad was led by Mike Kamps, Barry Doner and Mike Barry in their 30 to 19 win. The Intermediate

'Raiders' stun 'Rams'

STOUFFVILLE They said it couldn't be done - but Wexford 'Raiders' did it. They beat Richmond Hill 'Rams' 5-4, Tuesday, on Richmond Hill ice.

Steve Tobias in the Raiders net was brilliant, blocking a total of 49 shots. At one point in the contest, Wexford led 5-1.

Captain Laurie Rawn led the goal-scoring upset with two. Bill Hassard, Angie Moretto and Ben Kawa fired singles. Al Avery collected two assists.

Game two of the series was in Stouffville, Wednesday. The third contest is also on Stouffville ice, Saturday at 8 p.m.

Playoff schedule

STOUFFVILLE - Four Stouffville OMHA teams are in the heat of playoff action this week. Two of these have advanced to the Ontario semi-finals.

The schedule of games follows:

Midget 'A' - Campbellford at Stouffville, Thursday, at 8:30 p.m.

Bantam 'A' - Stouffville at Huntsville, Sunday, at 4 p.m.

Bantam 'B' - Port Perry at Stouffville, Thursday, at 7 p.m.

Peewee - Huntsville at Stouffville, Friday, at 8 p.m. Stouffville at Huntsville, Sunday, at 2 p.m.

Goaltender stars

STOUFFVILLE Doug Smith's hat-trick and Mark Herold's perfect goaltending led Turner Construction to a 3-0 win over Crest Hardware in Novice League action. David Rae earned one assist.

John Roe Ford defeated Card's Hardware 2-1. Doug Sanders and Ted Waite got the winner's goals.

Mark Simpson from Jim Jessup was the Card's scoring play.

Kevin McGuckin paced Stouffville Credit Union to a 3-2 win over Stouffville Stockyards. He scored twice and assisted on the opening goal by Paul Barry. Wes Worsfold and Mike Gibson scored for Stockyards with Robert Gierkink assisting on one.

Birkett - Hassard Insurance and Civitan played to a 1-1 tie. Gary Carr scored for Civitan on a pass from Eric Timbers. David Ramer got the Birkett-Hassard goal from Jim Greenshield.

Peewee - Bantam teams Host Huntsville in semi-finals

STOUFFVILLE - It's a Stouffville-Huntsville series in both the Bantam and Peewee classes of the Ontario semi-finals.

George Stark's Peewee lads host Huntsville, Friday, at 8 p.m. Jack Watson's Bantam boys travel to Huntsville, Sunday, for a game at 7 p.m.

The two teams earned the right to advance, by beating Picton in a 2-game sweep. The Peewees won 6-0 and 3-0. The Bantams were victors, 6-3 and 8-2.

Coach Stark praised his defence and goaltender Ken Hill, following Sunday's 3-0 win on Picton ice. He singled out Danny Wagg, Mark Barry, Malcolm Johnston and Jeff Burton for their efforts.

In the scoring department, it was Brian Murphy with two and Steve Schell, a single. Schell and Murphy also picked up one assist each, as did Glenn Gibson.

The Bantam club showed good scoring balance, getting goals from six players - Doug Feasby, Blair Bangay, Doug Todd, Geoff Roy, Keith Acton and Howie Jones.

At press time, there was no scoring summary available out of the 8-2 victory at Picton, Tuesday.

Roberts' rink no strangers to winner's circle

Murray Roberts' rink coasted to victory, Saturday, at the annual Unionville Curling Club bonspiel, that attracted 61 entries. The champions are (left to right) - Jim Sale (lead);

Dave Roberts (second); Jack Watson (vice) and Murray Roberts (skip).
