STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Spring Production
The Stouffville Players will feature the Neil Simon comedy, 'Come Blow Your Horn', for their spring production, April 6, 7 and 8. It will be one of the first events held in the new Whitechurch - Stouffville Community Hall. The director is Dennis Empson.

Jr. Horse Show
Oct. 1 may seem like a long way ahead, but not for the promoters of the Ballantrae Junior Horse Show. Work has already started in preparation for the event, that proved so successful in 1971. The age range for entries is 4 to 17 years, with ribbons to 8th place. There will be beautiful trophies for class champions. The location is the Whitechurch Centennial Centre.

Not a winner
Mrs. Jean Beach, R.R.3, Stouffville, did not hit the jackpot in a bingo at the Uxbridge Legion, as reported in The Tribune last week. In fact, Mrs. Beach informed the paper, they don't even run bingos there.

Prayer Service
An inspiring World Day of Prayer service was held March 3, in the Stouffville United Church. The theme, 'All Joy be Yours', was emphasized by the guest speaker, Mrs. Beverly Thompson of Goodwood.

School drama night

STOUFFVILLE
The suspense drama, 'Witness for the Prosecution', will be presented by the Theatre Club of the Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, April 13 and 14.

The production involves an estimated 30 senior students, the majority out of Grade 13. Key rolls in the 3-act play are taken by Debbie King, Heather Bangay, Bob Carder and Ray Marshall. The staff supervisor is Mrs. Stewart.

The April 13 date at 3 p.m., is for students only. The general public is invited April 14. The time is 8 p.m. Many of the actors are original members of the school Drama Club from Grade 9 and the play next month will constitute their final appearance on stage together.

Convention delegate
Ken Betz represented the Stouffville Public Utilities Commission at the 1972 Ontario Municipal Electric Association convention, Feb. 27 to March 1 at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto.

St. James W.M.S.
St. James Presbyterian Church W.M.S., met March 2 at the home of Mrs. Gary Grundy, March 2. The president, Mrs. Bruce Davidson was in charge. Mrs. A.D. Powell led in the study, assisted by Mrs. Fred Cromey, Mrs. Clarence Hood and Mrs. Grundy.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nigh, Charles Street, and Mrs. Jos. Fockler, Ringwood, visited with Mr. Ernest Matthews, a patient in East General Hospital, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cadieux, Main Street and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schell, Sunset Boulevard, enjoyed a pleasant mid-winter holiday at Sir Sam's Inn on Eagle Lake, Haliburton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Peacock and family, Ninth Line South, will be leaving their farm home this month, to take up residence on Peter Street in Markham.

Jack Warriner, conc. 7, Markham, suffered injury to his arm recently, when caught in the auger of a farm machine. Ken Reesor was able to render immediate aid. He was admitted to York County Hospital at Newmarket for treatment.

Model railroad
March 11 is 'father and son day' at the Whitechurch-Stouffville Public Library. Model railroad equipment and railroad bridges are on display, through the courtesy of Ivan Harris, Main Street West. Mr. Harris will present a program in the lower auditorium, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Both grown-ups and children are invited.

Art exhibit
The art exhibit, on display during the month of March, in the lower auditorium of Whitechurch-Stouffville Public Library, is the work of students from Orchard Park School.

86th birthday
Mrs. Luella DeRosiers of Ringwood, was honored, March 1, at a luncheon given by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harvey Pipher, on the occasion of her 86th birthday. Present was her daughter, Mrs. Grace Sherdahl; Mrs. Pipher's daughters, Mrs. Tom Burpee and daughter Susie, Toronto; Mrs. Evelyn McLoughlin, Toronto and Mrs. John Elliott, Bayview. She also received phone calls from her brother, Mr. Harvey Pipher, and her daughter, Mrs. Allan Mallory, both in Florida and from Ruth (Mrs. Ralph MacKenzie), Vancouver Island. Mrs. DeRosiers is the oldest native-born resident of Ringwood and enjoys fairly good health.

Claremont United Church is marriage setting

CLAREMONT - In only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hodgson, Claremont, 1971, Shirley May the James Edward Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson, 93 Hillcroft Street, Oshawa.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Linstead of Claremont. An arrangement of mauve and white gladioli graced the altar. The pew markers were sprigs of white gladioli and satin ribbon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor length gown of white silk organza with beaded Alencon lace down the front and back and on the high cuffed bishop sleeves. Lace accented the high neckline and delicate sheer yoke. An empire bodice held a detachable floor length train also trimmed with Alencon lace. Her head piece was a Juliet veil enhanced with pearls and Alencon lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink bridal roses, miniature orchids and pink carnations with baby's breath interwoven.

The maid of honor was Lynda Beelby of Claremont. Also attending were Sheila Gray, Kinsale; Linda Vint, Claremont and Janice Robertson, Oshawa, and sister of the groom. They were attractive in floor length gowns of mauve Georgette Crepe, purple velvet trimmed Empire waistlines, high cuffed harem sleeves and a wide flounce encircled each hemline. They wore their gift from the bride, a choker of purple velvet with the bridesmaid charm on it. Their flowers were colonial spring bouquets. Gary Denby of Oshawa was the groomsmen. The ushers were John Robertson, brother of the groom and Gordon and Douglas Hodgson, brothers of the bride. They were in Edwardian Tuxedos.

Dianne Beelby of Claremont, cousin of the bride, was the pretty flower girl. She wore a floor length gown of white Georgette crepe trimmed with ruffles of mauve Georgette and on her wrist she had a purple velvet band with the flower girl charm. She carried spring flowers. Robbie Beelby of Brougham, also a cousin of the bride was ring bearer. He was in an Edwardian Tuxedo and carried a mauve satin pillow, trimmed in white lace.

Kent Milroy of Claremont was the organist. Bob Ramer of Markham was the soloist. The reception followed in the Legion Hall.

For travelling to Eastern Canada, the bride chose a blue crepe dress and coat ensemble, white accessories and a corsage of roses.

Tribune Office Supplies has the finest selection of photograph albums.

Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Robertson, following their marriage, August 28, 1971, in the Claremont United Church. The bride is the former Shirley May Hodgson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hodgson, Claremont.
