

Celebrate 65th birthday

BLOOMINGTON - The Women's Fellowship Organization of the Bloomington Gospel Church, celebrated their 65th anniversary, March 2.

It was back on March 1, 1907, that the women of the congregation met at the home of Mrs. Willard Fockler (Matilda Wagg), with 10 ladies present. It was agreed to call the group, the 'Ladies Aid', adopting the motto, 'How Can I Serve?'

Mrs. Fockler was the first president and Mrs. Joe Winterstein (Josie Patterson), the secretary. They met once every month in the homes of members.

Money was raised through a membership drive and a monthly offering, also through garden parties, evening socials, husbands as guests, quilting and other means.

There were always ways and means of utilizing these funds. For example, the caretaker, the late Mrs. Joel Lemon was paid $6.25 each quarter; there was oil for lamps; food for the furnace and the minister's salary.

Members also saw a need for mission work, packing boxes and contributing money for missionaries' support. The membership has ways remained at about 25.

The four surviving ladies attending the 65th meeting are Mrs. Arthur Corey (Frances Morris); Mrs. Joe Winterstein (Josie Patterson); Mrs. Roy Johnson (Meredita Appleton) and Mrs.

Harry Wesley Percy

50 years

Schell Lumber Ltd.

March 1922, Clayton Stauffer and Wesley Schell purchased from the Canada Bee and Honey Co. the Stouffville Planing Mill. They continued in business together, as partners, until February 1928, at which time the partnership was dissolved. Since then, Wesley Schell has carried on the business. On completing his schooling in 1946, Harry Schell came to work at the mill. Similarly, in 1948, Percy joined his father and brother in the business.

It was in August 1955 that the name was changed from the Stouffville Planing Mill to SCHELL LUMBER LIMITED.

Mr. Schell senior is happy to say that he has thoroughly enjoyed his many years in the business. One thing, more than anything else, that has helped the business to prosper and eased the responsibility of management, according to Wesley Schell, has been the competence and willingness of good employees.

Today many new products and services have been added, and now, virtually everything you need for building construction, repair, beautification and modernization can be obtained from Schell Lumber. We look forward to many more years, continuing to supply good service to the tradesmen, homeowners and businessmen of the Stouffville area.
