Rita Prospero — Council president

Asks total involvement

STOUFFVILLE — The student council of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School should not be looked on as a bureaucratic coterie that arbitrarily establishes rules and regulations for others to follow.

This is the feeling of 17 year old Rita Prospero, 19th Avenue, R.R.1, Unionville. Rita is the recently-elected Council President, the first girl to attain this office in some fifteen years. She takes over the post in September, 1972.

While 'total involvement' is Rita's goal, she doesn't restrict it to the school alone. She feels the entire community should be more aware of what is going on and, on occasions, participate in certain programs.

"We need the cooperation of everyone," she said, the issue and she fully intends to carry it through.

With regard to student dress, she has no complaint with the policy now in force. She described it as 'pretty well open', with neatness a prime requisite. "The school has been very fair," she said, "everything seems to be working out well".

Rita, a pretty brunette, admits that she had second thoughts about letting her name stand for election. "They gave me a week to make up my mind," she said, "to convince the boys I could do the job was the difficult thing". Obviously, she did.

Other Council executives include - Jim Brodie, 1st vice president; Jim Wilson, 2nd vice-president; Sharon Todd, secretary and Joshua Leitch, social convener.

Student leader - a girl!

By Julie Bell
STOUFFVILLE — A student council must not only be strong in finances and authority, but it must be a friend to the students who depend on it, and a medium between teachers and students, a halfway executive where things may merge to satisfy all.

With these ideas in mind it is not hard to comprehend the task that the leader of this council must undertake. It is true that there are some who are swayed by a pretty face, a funny antic or a unique campaign. These however, are the minority. Most of us, when we cast our vote for president of the S.D.S.S. student council did so because we felt our vote was right, our choice firm and honest in all convictions. The outcome: The new president of our student council, is Rita Prospero, a girl! The first female president in fifteen years.

I am not writing this article because I am a sincere member of the Women's Lib movement, rather, in many areas, I am in staunch disagreement. This is done only out of personal interest to myself, and a desire to let others experience what all of us should be proud to realize.

Any one of the nominees for president would have done a good job, yet it was Rita who won. Her victory wasn't based on my vote alone, but 766 ballots.

I can congratulate Rita on her victory and wish her luck and success, yet more readily I can thank sincerely the entire body of the High School for a deep inner satisfaction. This satisfaction lies in the thought that you have realized leadership, regardless of sex, and chosen out of honesty and common good to all. Women's Lib...perhaps you have defeated your own purpose. All of your shouting and demanding has left you nowhere, yet one quiet campaign fought fairly, eliminating sexual attributes brought to our school a capable, willing, very happy president who just happens to be a girl - a lady.
