

Orchard Park pupils visit Bethesda sugar bush

April 14 was a day of 'discovery' for the Grade 1 pupils of Orchard Park Public School. They visited a sugar bush on the farm of Ray Atkinson, Bethesda, to see first-hand the making of maple syrup. Enjoying the trip and a taste on the side, is 6 year old Filomena Orsi, Sunset Boulevard. —Jas. Thomas.

Mr and Mrs Sam Doner honored by two hundred

STOUFFVILLE - On April 15, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Doner celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary and were at home to their friends in the auditorium at Parkview Home. More than 200 guests called to wish the happy couple well, and to share a cup of tea. Mrs. Doner, the former Ada Hoover and Mr. Doner were born on neighboring farms at Gormley, just one day apart. They have three children, Earl of Stouffville; Grace (Mrs. Doust) of Gormley and Allan, a missionary presently on furlough from West Africa and Nigeria. Mr. and Mrs. Doner spent the major part of their lives at Gormley, where Mr. Doner was Postmaster from 1923 to 1954. On April 12, Mrs. Lois Neeley, Administrator of Markhaven Home for Senior Citizens, Markham and Mr. Lynn Pinkston, Administrator of Shepherd Lodge, Agincourt, were luncheon guests of the Parkview staff. Graduation exercises were held April 13 in the auditorium at Parkview for the Seneca College Nursing Aide Course. Staff members honored with certificates were from Claremont Nursing Home, Stouffville; Green Gables Manor, Bethany Lodge, Unionville; Markham Lodge and Parkview Home. Mrs. Marshall, course instructor, Mr. Dick Grannon, Seneca College, Mrs. E. Cunningham, Stouffville, Mr. Ross Phillips and Mr. J. Nighswander, spoke briefly and assisted in the diploma presentations.

On April 16, Rev. and Mrs. G.C. Sheffer of Stayner, who are holding a series of meetings at Hisey Hill church, conducted the worship service.

CALL ME

Miss Helen Pfohl is spending a few days with Miss Florence Pfohl, Willowdale. Rev. and Mrs. D.I. Jeffrey were recently honored with a plaque from World Vision, for their outstanding work among the Vietnamese Military in Vietnam. Mr. Chas. Ratcliff showed pictures of Florida, Thursday evening. To those unable to make a trip to the Sunny South, it is a pleasure to see the area visited by so many others.
