Community dis-interest is cause for concern

By Rene Rennie
CLAREMONT - Members of the Claremont Community Recreation Association are discouraged - and no wonder. Since the first of the year, four different types of social events have been organized on a monthly basis, but only one of these has received adequate support. The latest, a Bingo, attracted 34 persons and 17 of these were from communities outside of Claremont. The proceeds will go to promote softball in the village. The Association meets on the second Wednesday of each month. Suggestions would be appreciated. Community sports directors are Art Maxwell and Eric Jones. They hope to field teams in every age class. Don't let them down.

 Mr. Fred Morley arrived home by air, Friday, following a holiday with family relatives in California. Euchre winners, Tuesday, were - Marge Norton, Rene Rennie, Bruce Finley and Tom Hammond. Ella Hammond and Aggie Ferguson had the most lone hands. The travelling prize went to Eric Winterstein. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hockley and daughter Mildred, are home again, following a winter holiday in Florida. Peter White has been released from hospital. He will convalesce for a time at home before returning to work. Mrs. Myrtle Hill and Mrs. McKenzie, Toronto, enjoyed a 2-week bus trip to Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rennie visited recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Watts, Toronto. A coach and manager are required for the Intermediate fastball team in Claremont. Call Art Maxwell (649-2335) or Eric Jones (649-2345) if you can help out in either capacity. Margaret Wilker's sale of household items, planned for Saturday, had to be cancelled because of the weather. It will be held May 6, at the Prentice Auction Yard, Hwy. 48, north of Markham. Mrs. Marion Wells of Lemonville, will speak to the children of the United Church Sunday School Anniversary, April 30, at 11:15 a.m. The boys and girls are
